America is in Serious Trouble

By Robert Firth

No doubt America is in serious trouble perhaps more so than even in the dark days of the revolution. It's my opinion that Biden (those in the administration (both visible and not) who are lucid enough to pay attention and obey) are following the orders of Chairman Xi. I think with the success of the vote flipping and getting rid of Trump, a process involving all the Biden DNC players, control is most certainly in China's hands. The Biden bunch today finds them totally compromised and easily blackmailed. Why and how? China can simply back up (totally expose) the vote flipping story anytime they want and destroy the DNC leaving them all open to charges of high treason.

Firth Photo

When one seeks to place blame asking cui bono and employing Occam's Razor are not unfamiliar tools. It's obvious that Biden did the maximum harm to America possible in his handling of the Afghanistan withdrawal. So, who's the world's principal beneficiary? Clearly China! Biden and all those involved are indeed guilty of high treason! Can a charge of treason be proven in this case? It would depend on how the orders from Chairman Xi were conveyed; if by an in-person private courier, which is the most likely then, proof is most likely not possible. If electronically (unlikely) then perhaps NSA et al have the evidence.

Since no other explanation is remotely possible, I would arrest the entire ring of perpetrators and sweat them one by one until the truth is told. One of them, with sufficient pressure, will crack and the rest will fall in line. I'm not talking about physical torture here, but the use of psychologically powerful techniques perhaps employing certain drugs.

I'm sure that once the dust settles from this debacle, the Biden regime will be finished. When the guys have completed the exit of trapped Americans and others in escaping the Taliban, it's unlikely that physical pressure will be brought to bear on the heads of the demented minions. The level of anger has reached way past the point where any talking can possibly help. Hundreds of operatives are leaving the military under the vax mandate and they will likely form the point of the spear in what I see as an unavoidable coming kinetic conflict to rid America of this corrupt and traitorous government.

I get so Confused

By Calvin Johnson

I get so confused with everything I hear about Covid19, masks, and vaccines, so here are some random thoughts and questions I have on the subject.

I hear that the medical community is all for people to get vaccinated, then why are there health workers refusing to get vaccinated? And why do some of my doctors dismiss the effectiveness of masks and vaccines while others push heavy use?

Why do some people say that if you love your neighbor then you should get vaccinated and wear a mask, while others say that if you love others then don't force them to do things that they are uncomfortable with?

Some experts say that being vaccinated is the only way to be protected from getting Covid19 or from getting a severe case. Then why are there break through cases? And why is it then that a huge majority of people who have not been vaccinated, did not get sick with the virus when exposed to others who had it or did not get a severe case that required hospitalization? Does this mean that most people's own immune systems actually work well against the virus?

If our country is systemically racist as the media and many politicians say it is, then why wouldn't minorities be reluctant to get the vaccine when our leaders call for it, especially with the Tuskegee experiments looming in the past?

With the dismally low approval ratings of our political leaders and the media in the last decade or so, why would most people have much regard to do anything that they call for, like being vaccinated or wearing masks?

If the CDC is just following the science with Covid19, then why do they keep changing their recommendations on a regular basis?

And finally, if the phrase, 'One size fits all' is basically not true, then why are the directions from some of our leaders, the media and healthcare professionals, tend to follow that flawed concept when it comes to Covid19?

I am not sure about all people but when there is so much contradictory information being passed around, don't most people just throw up their hands and choose what they feel is best for them and isn't there resentment toward those who employ guilt or virtue signaling to sway them?

I Just Remembered

By CS Bennett

Although it slipped my mind, I now remember being forced to get the Swine Flu shot when I was in Basic Training during my first two months in the US Navy. I also remember that all day and all night long you could hear the sirens of ambulances and their medical crews who were busy transporting recruits to the hospital because of that shot. When all was said and done, Swine Flu turned out to be a bust after all of the government and media hype... I had no choice back then, but now I do, and will stand my ground to maintain that choice...

Bennett Photo

Below is a video that gives you insight about how the government lied to the American people back in 1976 to get them to take the Swine Flu shot and how they hid information about the debilitating impairment people suffered who had a pronounced reaction to the shot... I share this information because of my love for family and friends... Do with it whatever you want to do. My role is just to put it out there, not live in fear, especially when there is a living God who sees through what is really going on behind the scenes... The Ram!

All Around the City, State and Country

TCCR Staff Photos

The St. Augustine Tea Party (SATP) is, without question, the oldest continually prevailing grassroots organization in St. Johns County, Florida. They survived the Democrats, the Republicans, the St. Augustine Police Department, the St. Johns County Sheriff's Department and attacks by the Occupiers, BLM, Antifa and the New Black Panther Party. The SATP held it together when no one else could or would do it. As the influence of the Tea Party dwindled nationally, the SATP provided a forum for like-minded groups locally. In the early days, the SATP traveled the State and protested weekly in the Historic District of St. Augustine. That was 11 years ago. The people of yesterday have either retired, or in some cases died, but the organization's efforts continue with new, younger, more numerous members. Recently, at Florida's Capital in Tallahassee, the SATP played its part with "We the People" protesting the holding of 'Political Prisoners' in the DC Jail. The SATP members also went to Tampa to protest against the presence of Washington's Capitol Police presence in Florida. Billy Jean, TCCR roving reporter, visited the "Bards Fest" in St. Louis, MO. The "Bards Fest" is a grassroots funded event to celebrate God. Here is a picture of Mike Lindell and Billy Jean at the event which had dozens of preachers, singers and amusements during the four days of "Bards Fest" on August 26th through the 29th.

And then back Home Again

Then on September 5, 2021, back in the City they call home, St Augustine, the SATP along with North Florida Patriots and Militia Groups, demonstrated for the Mom's of the Free States. The struggle is still going on with the Teacher's Unions & the Left Leaning Boards of Education in Florida and other States who are forcing TCCR Staff Photo children to wear masks in class.

Tea Party members are proud of the legacy they created in and around the City of St. Augustine, the State of Florida and the National attention they have received.

Flagler Co. School Board in Chaos

Photos Social Media Screen Shots

Last month's Flagler County School Board meeting erupted in chaos with the audience being ejected. The ejected Patriots confronted law enforcement and demanded that they enforce Florida's "Sunshine Law" in Flagler County and Citizen's Constitutional First Amendment Rights. Seeing the error of their ways, the Flagler County Sheriff's Department permitted Patriots to rejoin the School Board meeting. The School Board's attempt to evict the audience was based solely on their desire not to listen to opposition to their Covid CCP protocol during public comment. There were many present and the disgruntled public dominated the meeting with their series of three-minute public comment presentations.

Flagler County residents and parents were joined by members of the St. Augustine Tea Party (SATP). The SATP has been engaging public officials in Northeast Florida and in Tallahassee for the last 11 years. Tea Party Members bear witness to the fact that officials do not wish to hear from "We the People". The SATP has often had its members forcibly removed by law enforcement on the whim of arrogant elected officials. In the past, these attacks against their members were addressed outside the meetings. Today, these assaults are being addressed directly to the offending public officials and offending law enforcement officer's illegal behavior.

The Flagler County School Board's September meeting was held on September 21, 2021. The meeting had barely started when School Board member, Colleen Conklin broke protocol addressing a member of the audience directly.

The Liberty minded Patriot, who was wearing a tee shirt with 'Flagler Liberty Coalition' on it, stood to answer Vice Chairman Conklin's comments. [See picture above] At which point, she ordered that the individual be removed. It was the Vice Chairman who broke protocol, a clear demonstration of the double standard of permitting public officials to misbehave and break the rules of order, while the general public cannot. The response from the audience was quick and direct. Among the shouts and boos of opposition to her comments, the statement, "We are ready to do bad things right now," could be heard. The angry public threw the aggressive comment in Colleen Conklin's face. [Conklin was later forced to apologize. Ed]

There was not much support, for the ejection of the individual who suffered Conklin's attack, by the majority of law enforcement present. However, a single deputy took it upon himself to follow the errant School Board member's directive. The entire audience was not removed from the School Board meeting as it had been in August.

At this point, the School Board left the room seeking safety, acting upon the advice of Sheriff's Deputies in attendance. As the errant Deputy escorted the wronged Patriot, SATP Chairman, Shawn Morrison repeatedly sought an answer to the question of why the Patriot was being removed. The Deputy offered no explanation and did not respond to allegations that he was violating Florida's Sunshine Law.

The Deputy, while in the hall outside the meeting room, was reminded that he will soon have to make a decision as to whether to stand with the people or continue his support for left leaning officials.

School Boards all across the Country are being confronted by irate citizens. The evils of Communism are being taught in the schools. This became apparent during the Covid CCP shutdowns. Many parents were surprised and shocked at what their children are being taught. It is reported that homeschooling is up and public school enrollment is down.

The St. Augustine Tea Party has also had an interest in the School Board in St. Johns County. The SATP has confronted the St. Johns County School Board on several occasions, in a similar manor.

The saga received TV coverage on Fox 35, Orlando, Florida.

Jamie Parham, a Militia and Tea Party member was interviewed. Concerned people at the meeting in Flagler County are demanding a say in what their children are being taught. Their mission is to make School Boards responsive to parents, not the Communist infiltrated Teachers Unions. School Board resistance to the public resulted in yet another chaotic meeting.
