W. H. O. Let the Dog Out

By David Heimbold

Well, it wasn't Fauci!

As we all know by now, The World Health Organization is run by world-class eugenicists, who are desperate to reduce the earth's population by whatever means possible... this includes murder.

Why not start with "man's best friend," the cute little puppies? By now everyone knows that the demented Fauci spent $1.68 million in taxpayer funds to feed caged dogs to hungry sand flies to "be eaten alive".

It was no big deal for Fauci to feed the gullible American public with deadly, slow acting, 'jabs' for humans.

Newsmax screenshot

And what to our wondering eyes (and ears) did appear, to defend Fauci's Gain-of-Function nightmare, but W.H.O. Advisor, Jamie Metzki to obfuscate the situation with polished sophistry to confuse the reporter on Newsmax T.V. Too bad, so sad.

This was the same leftist tactic Bill Clinton used when he said, "it depends on what the meaning of the word 'is' is."

Fauci's days will be over as the "Wizard of Dogs" experiment has bitten him with a deadly bite. Dog spelled backwards is God. Oh no!

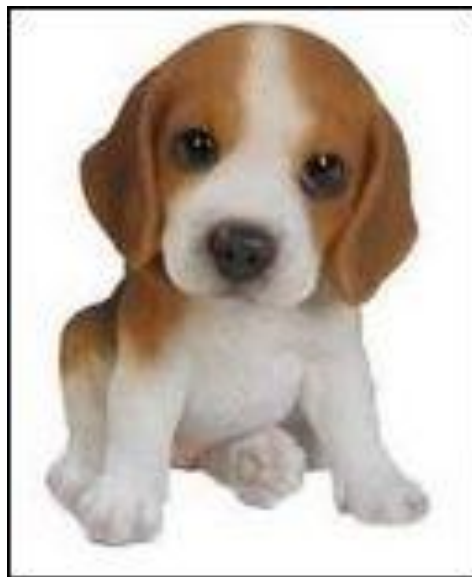

With more "lefties" adopting dogs instead of children, these days, Fauci is a goner.

Another thing, the leftist EAT THEIR HEROES! Yes, they fatten them up, like Gov. Como, with a multi-million dollar book contract! Why? For killing off a score or more, like 24,000 senior citizens by putting Covid 19 victims in nursing homes.

The rug was pulled out from under Como, by his fellow lefties.

Next, watch the fall of Fauci. A pack of angry dog lovers will pull him apart!

Don't ever kill a puppy.

Wayfair screen shot

By HK Edgerton

Dear Ms Lunelle,

As I pulled into a gas station, I would pass alongside a car that had a sign board pasted on the door that read... Celebrate Spanish Heritage Month. Why would I want to do that, I thought? Here I was the son of former slaves daily being asked to buy into a Woke agenda, An agenda hijacked by the LBGT Black Lives Matter movement, the agendas of similar anarchist who wanted to use black folks, especially Southern blacks against the Southern white man while using the world wide economic institution of slavery as the false narrative to do so.

Now being asked to celebrate Spanish Heritage, if slavery was or is the issue of the Woke agenda, why would black folks want to celebrate the heritage of a people who were the provenances of the trade in which they extracted millions upon millions of Africans from their continent (approximately 80% of the overall total) into the world wide economic institution of African slavery?

Ironically, here I am a participant in a lawsuit against the oldest City in America, St. Augustine, Florida. A former Spanish possession sold to America along with its African slaves. I was forced to fight against the removal of the Cenotaph to the first fully integrated American armed forces, that of the Confederacy. The City used slavery as the false narrative to do so. City officials proclaiming that the Confederates fought a war to maintain the economic institution of slavery in the 3rd State to secede from the Union. Yet again if the Woke Agenda carries prominence, why is the Monument of the Spanish Constitution still standing?

And here I am in the land of the free, home of the brave daily being asked to turn my back on the only man to ever care about the being of the African people in lieu of the world wide economic institution of slavery with a blind eye to the complicity of those who raided the villages and home places of my ancestors with violent accord. While leaving behind the old and helpless to fend with the thugs who would seize what was left of their physical and fiscal properties now being sold in the world markets as we look on ; ancestors with no place to go for adjudication.

My chain of thought would be broken as an elderly white gentleman told a baby girl of about 5 or 6 years old while pointing to me; there he is, the man with the Time Machine; the infamous HK Edgerton! It became apparent that her papa had been listening to me at another time tell a baby girl who was acting shy that I had a Time Machine and would come that very evening to take her to the Junior / Senior Prom. And that while her dad would tell me to have her home by 9PM; I would bring her mother a dozen roses, and she would tell her dad that I could bring her home at 9:30PM. This generally broke the ice. He must have also been at the meeting where I had spoken about the African King and my great, great grandmother's brother.

The little girl said, Mr. HK, I don't want you to take me to the Prom. Can we go back to Africa in your Time Machine and save your grandmother's brother from the African King? I don't think he told her the story in the same details, but it was apparent it was sufficiently told to give her great concern for my great, great uncle's life.

What are we going to do with him baby girl? He can't speak English, and I don't have the time to teach him. I can't afford to feed and shelter him. Where is he going to work? I could plainly see that my responses were not going well, or anywhere with this little angel standing before me. She looked me right in the eyes and said" We can take him to my great, great, great, great, great papa's Plantation. Can't we papa? Papa said that he was very kind, generous, and loving to all of his servants. And they loved him and my mum ma as well. Plus he will meet Jesus there! Won't he Papa?" Papa was now in as much hot water as I was.

Finally, I told her that I would pick her up that night in my Time Machine. Did I lie? I don't know. She would squeeze and hold me so tight and that smile I shall never forget. I knew that somehow that the Almighty God would plant in this little Angels mind that we had accomplished her mission on this night. God bless you!

Your brother, HK

Shooting from the Hip!

By David Heimbold

Lance Thate, Tea Party Emeritus, considered Luis Valdes pro gun presentation one of the best, ever! Incredibly, Mr. Valdes pulled over on I-95 to check the fluids in his tank and found Old Glory on the side of the road. With great respect he showed it to the shocked, silent Tea Party audience.

This meeting on November 9, 2021 was on the 45th Anniversary of GOA, Gun Owners of America.

Florida State Director, Luis Valdes sliced and diced the fable that the REC is pro gun, and pro-carry. How the Republican leadership of the House and Senate are two-faced and gun owners must stop being gun-packing couch potatoes. Just because they have a R Behind their name doesn't cut it.

TCCR Staff Photos

A humorous anecdote by former Chairman Lance Thate, pictured left, was how Attorney Cord Byrd tried to wrestle the Tea Party away from him...But, as Lance recalled, he had registered the name with the State of Florida. Case closed. Byrd shot himself (and the other Rhinos in St. Johns County) in the foot! The Republican 'establishment', in Florida is weak on gun rights. Open carry in the majority of the States...but not in Florida.

Luis Valdes is the open carry answer. Hi ho silver! Away with weak kneed 2nd amenders! Support Luis Valdes and the GOA!

Are Confederate Monuments Racist?

Johnson Photo

By Calvin Johnson

We continue to hear that the Women of the Southland Monument is racist, and glorifies slavery, and white supremacy. Also Mark Woods puts in his two cents worth and says that it was erected by racists to justify their racist actions and philosophy. Certainly some of the people behind the monument were racists and were trying to justify their past sins, but it is also wrong to paint things with such a broad brush. Most of the women of the South were not hate filled and racist. They were there to support their men who fought in battle, not for slavery, but to protect their new independent nation from what they deemed as northern invaders. When I see the Women of the Southland monument I see the forgotten women who sacrificed much during and after the Civil War. Yes it is easy to remember the heroics on the battlefield, but what about the heroic women who had to hold things together at home. They had to raise their children by themselves as their men when off to battle. They had to scratch out a living in the hard economic times of war. They had to wonder in agony if their beloved husbands or sons would one day return. And after the war they had to pick up the pieces of a homeland that was for the most part destroyed. And they also had to deal with their men who had lost limbs or came back with many emotional scars.

I personally find it very offensive in today's atmosphere to view everything through the narrow lens of race. Why can't we remember the sacrifice and resiliency of the women who came before us? Why can't we have a memorial or monument pointing out the sacrifices and horrors of war before we so easily make the decision to jump into it? And why do so many assume the worst of the people who fought for the South during the Civil War?
