A SHORT INTRODUCTION TO THE DEATH OF HUMANITY

By Robert J. Firth

So, what's the risk of a wider war resulting from the Ukrainian conflict? How about the total absolute destruction of all life in North America and Western Europe? Does that sound like a risk? I'd say so! Here's where we are and why it's possible!

Putin, obviously, has lost perspective and badly misjudged both his military's ability, the resolve of the Ukrainian people and their willingness to fight for their country. Most Russian soldiers are conscripts, young and without combat experience. Only a few NCO's and officers have war-fighting experience. However, none are really motivated to attack and kill Ukrainian people.

The Ukrainians, by contrast, are fighting to remain free and independent. Many grew up in a free country and do not wish to be a subservient Russian client state. They are far more aligned by education and experience with Western Europe. In the military, there's an axiomatic truth that fighters on their home territory have a 6 to 1 advantage over invading foreign forces. Of the 40 odd million Ukrainians, I imagine some 2 to 5 million have picked up arms and are fighting. The 150,000 Russians, despite their armor and aircraft, are at a severe disadvantage. In fact, some 4,000 Russians are already dead vs. perhaps 400 Ukrainians.

The Ukrainians may not have the technical advantages but they are planting very deadly and effective IEDs and booby traps. Their civilians are tossing petrol bombs and snipers are picking off Russian troops. The man-carried anti-tank missiles are taking out Russian tanks and armored vehicles as well as ground to air weapons, which have downed a number of helicopters and aircraft. Even the few Ukrainian fighter aircraft have shot down Russians.

The Russians, once inside the cities, will be and are subjected to sniper fire, booby traps and relentless hostility. What we're seeing here is the truth of the old saying that it's not the size of the dog in the fight but instead, the size of the fight in the dog!

Putin is losing this war and the question is what is he going to do, what is he willing to do and what will he do? The western world has seriously sanctioned Russia. Every Russian with money or property in any western country has seen their holdings seized. They have been made pariahs and are being persecuted everywhere. Many are being listed as war criminals and even officers and soldiers who order or engage in the murder of Ukrainians will face the international courts of human rights for war crimes against humanity. No doubt Putin has made a terrible mistake!

Clearly, the Russians are faced with a most serious problem. How far gone is Putin, is he nuts, will he start world war III? The answer for us is "we don't know?" Do the top Russian leaders know? I hope, for all our sakes, they do and are seriously thinking about what to do!

My most serious recommendation to the Russian leaders is arrest Putin and get the army out of Ukraine immediately! Putin is a trapped rat facing an enraged world. He has only two options 1) withdraw immediately or 2) double down and use whatever weapons he has to eliminate all Ukrainian resistance. That means likely the murder of a minimum of five to ten million human beings and chancing a far wider, far bloodier and far longer conflict.

Also, that necessarily means the doomsday clock will move far closer to midnight. If ole Puttie goes for mass murder, there's the very real likelihood of Western NATO forces actively assisting the Ukrainians. That, my friends, could very well be the trigger for a catastrophic nuclear disaster. Why?

If western forces get involved in active (open) warfare with Russian forces the Russians will lose. That you can take to the bank! The NATO air and ground forces will, in 24 hours, clear the skies and the warthogs (etc.,) will eliminate all Russian armor and supply depots that same day. That will spell the end of the Russian conventional forces. Putin will be a doubly cornered rat with only one move left- Nuclear war! Is he crazy enough to lose Armageddon- if so, it will spell the end of all western civilization! I guarantee, should the worst come to be, you can bend over and kiss your fat ass goodbye. That will be all she wrote!

I Watched the SOTU Address

By Joe Ryan

I watched the "State Of The Union" last night and was floored by former Vice-President Biden's plan to cure inflation. Biden said to American companies to just "lower your costs." To me, this seemed like Biden's "let them eat

However, being a loyal citizen, I went out today and tried to put Biden's plan into effect. I went into Wal-Mart and when I got to the register, I said I was implementing Biden's inflation cure and lowered my costs by 50% of the retail price. Chaos ensued.

I tried again to implement Biden's inflation plan at the gas station and the attendant called the cops. It seems no one cares about inflation and much as lunch-bucket Joe and me. Joe Biden's plan is brilliant and the most original plan for economic security ever invented. If companies just lowered their costs, inflation would be a dim memory. If only economists and business owners had thought of it before we would never had any economic problems.

Biden suggested that lowering cost for businesses was just a matter of just doing it and it will be done. Although it is hard to imagine that lower cost will be so easy when Biden also proposed raising the corporate income tax the 50%, doubling the minimum wage, lengthy family leave requirements, shutting down American energy production, and a host of other burdens on a American businesses.

All this time everyone thought that inflation was a result of too much (phony) fiat paper money chasing too few products. Something that happens when the government spends trillions of dollars that are digitized into existence by some central bank. That kind of inflations hurts everyone except the cronies and politicians that get the free money handed to them first

What amazes me is that someone actually wrote that stupid idea into Biden's speech. I heard someone on NPR radio say that "lower your costs" was a brilliant plan. I am not surprised that our taxpayer funded, state run media organ, the so-called "public broadcasting system", touts Biden's plan as if it actually made sense. Pravda has nothing on NPR and PBS.

So next time any government proposes raising taxes you just tell them to lower their cost or they are pro-inflation and un-American and a racist for not following Biden's plan.

Wow, I Attended An REC Meeting!

By Lance Thate

On March 3, 2022, the St. Johns County Republican Executive Committee (REC) met at the World Golf Village Conference Center for their monthly business meeting.

TCCR Staff Photos you

I must say that I was surprised to find myself in attendance. For months now, Grassroots Patriots from the St. Augustine Tea Party (SATP) and the North Florida

Patriots (NFP) have encouraged me to attend a REC meeting, as a guest, insisting that REC meetings have changed since the time I was a Precinct Committeeman in St. Johns County, Florida (2010 through 2013). However, those making the claim were not witnesses to the REC during my involvement with the organization. For me the recent encounter was a déjà vu experience. While the board members were, for the most part, unknown to me. The structure and the feel of the meeting are unchanged. Largely, the atmosphere is that of a pep rally, as for a football game, complete with a cheerleader from the Republican Party of Florida. Republicans vs. Democrats, but it's all such a con.

In 2010, it was all about taking the House and ousting Pelosi, with Obama occupying the White House. In 2022, it is all about taking the House and ousting Pelosi with former Vice President Biden officiating for Obama's shadow government in the White House. The truth of the matter is Republicans helped them every step of the way from 2010 until the present. We need only look at the money flows and the deeds. Their words expressed mean nothing.

The Republicans and Democrats have something in common. They both loathe their constituents. The voter is only something to manipulate to their end. But they also fear the people because both parties understand that in America, power is vested in "We the People".

It is customary for the meeting to begin with the “Pledge of Allegiance”, a pledge to the flag and the REPUBLIC for which it stands. Last month the local branch of the “Republican in Name Only” Party (RINO) failed to have a flag available for the presenting of the colors. Grassroots Patriots, who have infiltrated the REC, as members, were infuriated. So the meeting that opened on March 3rd had numerous full sized flags which were carried in by REC members who are also Tea Party members. The SJC REC Chairman, Roy Alaimo, invited the color bearers to the front for the ‘Pledge’. This prompted a large round of applause. When the Chairman asked who was responsible for the flags, the answer given was, “the St. Augustine Tea Party (SATP)”. Now, the new Chairman probably had no clue as to the animosity between the SATP and the REC, but the old guard REC operatives did.

In 2010 and 2011, Michael Gold, Editor and Publisher of the “Historic City News” was ever present taking pictures and videos. To my knowledge, he was never challenged. However they did not like the “Town Crier Committee Report”. Protocol, at the time, was if the leadership felt threatened, they announced that the media was present and members acted appropriately. This would occur, for example, if “The St. Augustine Record” appeared. They never did that to me; they simply had Jon Woodard attempt to suppress my “First Amendment Free Press Rights”. So it was this past March 3rd. There was a young man wearing a 3% Militia T-shirt, sporting a Western-style cowboy hat, taking videos of the candidates during their three-minute presentations. Jon Woodard, in an attempt to have him removed, laid hands on him; this is an act of assault in the State of Florida. The young man verbally defended himself from the altercation. Mr. Woodard, obviously threatened by the verbal push back, called the St. Johns County Sheriff’s Department. There are reports that initially no less than 15 deputies appeared on the scene. When I left, at the close of the meeting, there were still six deputies present in the hall leading to the conference room.

Apparently political parties are now part of the establishment. In 2010, the Sheriff’s Department would defend public officials. Political parties had to hire off-duty deputies and police officers for security. The Tea Party would let it be known that it was going to demonstrate at the REC and, like clockwork; they would spend money on security. I think that the Republicans are really insecure and particularly fearful of the people and the mainstream media. This fear has only increased since the beginning of the “We the People Movement” because in their hearts they know that their purpose in the political arena ended years ago.

Reports from board members have been a tradition of our REC meetings. I noted, with interest, the presence of the current State Committeeman, Tom Rivers. Rivers goes back to my tenure with the REC. In 2013, Tom Rivers was a former School Board member who was a big supporter of Common Core. State Committeemen and State Committeewomen tend to be those who will support the leftist positions in Tallahassee. It is the Republican Party of Florida that is instrumental in securing State Committeemen and State Committeewomen.

An example of the corrupt nature of the process is illustrated by the election victory of John Stevens, a Republican Liberty Caucus Vice Chairman, for SJC State Committeeman in 2012. The State Committeeman election was actually on the ballot and registered Republicans were able to select the Committeeman. It is a rare event in Republican politics. The Republican Party of Florida, on a technicality, had John Stevens striped of his REC membership, therefore making him ineligible to be State Committeeman and they inserted a Rino Republican who received 25% of the popular vote. Stevens' great crime was a couple days after the election; he was caught in a photograph wearing a Ron Paul button. And today we have a communist sympathizer as State Committeeman. Some things never change.

In my day at the REC, grassroots candidates were rarely allowed to speak. Doug Russo, running for the School Board, is much too colorful for a REC meeting. He is a real person. Not the gray Republican candidate who does nothing. The current SATP Chairman, Shawn Morrison's forceful and vibrant attack on Republicans who fail to support the Second Amendment was much too much to the point to keep Bob Smith in his seat. In my day, Smith would run up to me and tell me that I was damaging the party. After Morrison's rant, I can only imagine what Smith whispered in Morrison's ear. My prediction is that the REC will soon eliminate grassroots conversation by eliminating open candidate forums and by eliminating membership comments. Bob Smith was very instrumental, with his deceitful role as a mediator, in permitting the illegal and fraudulent transfer of SATP funds, by other REC operatives, into a Republican bank account. The matter was ultimately resolved in a lawsuit but alas, the money was spent on Rino candidates with only a small portion being returned to SATP members.

Staff Photos Feb 9, 2012 outside REC Meeting

While I was at the March 3rd meeting, Peter Royal, the Greater Republican Club of St. Augustine President, and a former SATP member, came up to greet me. I think he was happy to see me at the REC meeting. He invited me to attend his meeting. Peter, my association with the Republican Party ended on January 6, 2021! What transpired between that date and January 20th is inexcusable and forever unforgivable. The only way I would attend your meeting would be as a featured speaker and my subject would be “How the Republican Party is betraying both the people and the nation”.

To those who think that somehow the SJC REC has changed since the movement started some thirteen years ago, I assure you it has not. Not one iota! Many of the same players that existed in 2010 exist today. The Republican Party, for a long time, has been a party of infighting because they’re afraid to go out and fight the real enemy.

And if you new Patriots think your attack on them is something new, I must correct you there as well. Attacking the Republican Party didn’t start with you. You are continuing on the efforts of those who preceded you. The GOP is a sinking ship. After her demise a new craft shall appear. Maybe they will call it the Dartmouth. (Internal laughter)

Patriots, God’s speed to your efforts, I applaud all that you do.

P.S.

I have held the belief that the Republicans are on their last legs for a long time. Pictured here with then Congressman Ron DeSantis for a photo op, I advised the Congressman that he was a member of a dying political party. That was on August 21, 2014. My pronouncement did not consider the advent of Donald J. Trump. I truly expected the Republicans to nominate Jeb Bush. The Republican leadership has been that blindsided time and time again.

The 45th President of the United States blew new life into the party, his presence enriched their coffers. And yet on January 20, 2021, all of the Washington Establishment in DC rejected the concept of America first and returned to the New World Order orthodoxy. God help us.

Standing Up for Liberty

We are living in a time when our very existence is under attack by the evil forces of a top down Communist Revolution. Put simply, the

Communists, who have been at war with America since the 1920's, are closing in with their final assault. What was once covert is now out in the open for anyone who looks to see. We are no longer a free people. We do as we are told. "Equal Justice Under the Law" is not understood by most Americans today. Our government no longer serves "We the People". Our leaders do not represent our will; instead, they rule.

We live in a time where we must stand up and resist. This is a time like our forefathers experienced in 1776. They pledged their Lives, their Fortunes and their Sacred Honor.

We have a Patriot among us who has pledged everything he has at his command, Matthew Patterson.

Matthew fights on several fronts. Matt has been fighting ALS for 22 years. At present, the only muscular control this man has is a slight movement of muscles around his right eye. Inside of his unresponsive body resides a fine mind and a great Patriotic spirit. Matt controls a computer with a slight movement, a blink of his eye. He painstakingly moves the cursor one letter at a time to compose his correspondence. Matthew has been writing letters to our elected officials for at least 10 years that this reporter is aware of. Recently he saw our article about the J-6 rally that was held in the Historic District of St. Augustine, Florida. It prompted him to write to Representative Michael Waltz.

With Matthew's permission we enclose his letter to Rep. Michael Waltz:

February 26, 2022

*Representative Michael Waltz
213 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515*

Dear Representative Waltz,

Ask yourself this. Is "President" Biden keeping his oath to protect and defend the U.S. Constitution? Should the People's House draw up articles of impeachment? What does "President" Biden have to do first, give terrorists an armory of $85 BILLION of sophisticated, world-class weapons? What does Joe need to do, murder Americans? Do thirteen military personnel or the lists of Americans handed to the Taliban by Blinken count? What does "President" Biden have to do first, rape a child? Does turning over the southern American border to Mexican drug cartels that traffic children into sexual slavery and rape children themselves along the way from south and Central America count? Does aiding and abetting a pedophile in Hunter Biden who statutorily raped his stepdaughter count? What does Joe need to do first, be compromised by taking bribes from America's most adversarial countries? Does taking $3.5 million from the wife of the Mayor of Moscow or $1.5 billion from a Chinese bank count? What does "President" Biden have to do first, participate in a fraudulent election? Does winning an election in Pennsylvania, Arizona, Michigan, Wisconsin, Georgia and Nevada on November 4th 5th 6th 7th 8th 9th after being behind by hundreds of thousands of votes on election day count? See Mike Lindell for the answer. What I don't understand is why Joe Biden has not been arrested?

Really frustrated,

Matthew Patterson

Matthew Patterson is a Patriot standing tall and strong, though he is unable to move from his wheelchair. He resists the tyranny upon us with all that he commands. He has given his all and no one can ask more. God blesses Matthew Patterson each day in his work.

To those of you who are still standing on the sidelines afraid or intimidated to the point that you will take no action, in the face of Matthew's dedication, what say you now? Matthew Patterson is giving his all, surely you can give something.

What's it going to be America, "The Land of the Free, and the Home of the Brave" or darkness?

The Truth About Ukraine

Telegram Image

It is becoming very difficult to discern the truth in the United States. There are no mainstream media sources, print, digital or visual, that even comes close to reporting the facts. America is no better off today, than the Germans were during the Third Reich, regarding the infusion of unadulterated propaganda.

This is particularly true regarding the news coverage of Ukraine's ongoing saga. Dis-information runs rampant on both sides, continuously, blending with the demand of compulsory support for the Ukrainian government.

Nowhere was this more apparent than in the "State of the Union Address". Universally, the Congress, over half of the Supreme Court and the entire Executive Branch joined in lockstep to support the Ukrainian government. They are same united front that denied the duly elected 45th President of the United States from assuming office. The same Globalists that dominate all three branches of the US government today, who are firmly back in control. With such unanimous support, it is clear that a most questionable agenda is in play.

Media's Drumbeat of War

Internet Screenshot

According to the media, not since the World War II bombing of Pearl Harbor, have the American people been so united in a cause, even willing to accept nuclear war, if necessary. No such thing is true, that is not where the American people are. That is where the media's drumbeat of war is.

Throughout the Second World War and during the Cold War there were alternative news sources. The Germans could listen to England's BBC and Russians could listen to the "Voice of America" broadcasts during the Soviet Cold War Era. These alternative news sources were frequently jammed by the totalitarian governments. Today we have the Internet, as an alternative underground news source. Totalitarian sympathizers jam the Internet like radio was jammed in the past; only they use a different technology. There are reporters, freelance and otherwise, who are dedicated to the distribution of the truth.

Internet Screenshot Oliver Stone

The Truth be Told

One such reporter is Patrick Lancaster, pictured to the above. Lancaster is an American who lives with his Ukrainian wife in the battle torn country. Lancaster reports that this war has been going on since 2014, with the Ukrainian government shelling Ukrainian citizens in areas in the Eastern part of the country where they're somewhat sympathetic to the Russians. As of recently, there is shelling by Russians who have invaded the Ukraine. He reports that there is massive corruption within the Ukrainian government, but also acknowledges the corruption in the Putin government. Oliver Stone, in a documentary full-length movie, "Ukraine on Fire", delves into Ukrainian corruption. He goes back to the days of German occupation.

Nearly a quarter of a million Ukrainians joined the Nazi occupiers which formed SS extermination camps. History records the Ukrainian Holocaust against the Jews. Those who participated have never been brought to justice. The Western part of the country is sympathetic to Nazi ideology. The Eastern part is more pro Russian. The government is corrupt. In this mixture, the US Intelligence Services, the globalists and profiteers reside.

Lara Logan, a Fox New contributor, is reporting on various Internet sites, that Ukraine is a playground for the Globalists where they raise money, launder money, create bio weapons and get involved in backroom deals where politicians personally profit. It is a system of lies, distortions and dis-information. Logan challenges some of the biggest names in the US government as being complicit in this Globalist's enterprise. Family members of U.S. politicians are being appointed to board positions of Ukrainian Corporations. These include family members of the Biden's, the Clinton's, the Kerry's, the Pelosi's and the Romney's, for example. The cesspool of the "Ukraine Swamp" creates a horrible situation for the Ukrainian People, who are truly suffering.

Internet Screenshot Lara Logan

Lara Logan is reporting that Putin has wanted to remove this Globalist operation from his doorstep for many years. The weakness of the current occupant of the White House is creating this opportunist the courage to move. Clearly the ongoing Globalist activities in the Ukraine are of extreme importance to the Washington swamp creatures and their media allies. This reporter has never witnessed a media promotion of war, to this extent, in his 60+ years.

It's Time for Major Intervention

By CS Bennett

Bennett Photo

It is true that those on the right are not only informed, but they are well-informed, especially when it comes to the facts and the nature of those who govern and wield power over us, compared to those on the left. We are more cerebral in our thought processes when it comes to politics and the world we live in while those on the left are emotionally driven in these matters. It is a fact that emotions are easier to exploit than those who can think rationally for themselves. Unfortunately, leaders on our side seem not to understand this. Passion is what they often lack and it shows. This is what separated 45 from other republican presidents. The man had both passion and wit. He also had backbone.

I am often asked by my white counterparts in republican circles and the conservative movement, how is it that those in our minority communities cannot recognize how much they are being lied to and used by those on the left. I am also asked why these struggling communities still vote democrat. My answer is always this, they feel they are heavily oppressed and have been led to believe that we, on the right, are their oppressors. It is as simple as that. It is a message that has been ingrained into their psyche beginning at home and at school, from 1st grade on up through college, thanks to our failing government run schools.

So, are they really being oppressed? Yes, they are, but not by us but rather by those who are pushing this big lie. And who are they? They are the leaders inside and outside of the Democrat Party, the biased left-wing media, academia and the docu-dramas and movies coming out of Hollywood. These are the very people, and institutions, our desperate and impoverished communities are beholding to. And though it is a pure lie, they have been led to believe that we, on the right, want to return them to the days of Jim Crow, segregation, and even worse, slavery when this is the history of their own political party. They have been led to believe that our side want to hold them back and keep them from becoming prosperous. Those on the left are masters in getting all of the groups under their umbrella to think collectivism, not individualism. So, the question remains...

How can they see us in this way, which is a lie, yet ignore the violence, poverty, high food prices, failing schools, and higher gas prices, all which have flourished under the failed policies of the left, and still vote for the political party that created this chaos? Having inroads into the Black community, I know how left-wing propaganda is being spread. On whole, their listeners are being fed misinformation, disinformation, half-truths, and outright lies nonstop, 24/7 by media organizations such as CNN, MSNBC, and the three alphabet news outlets, NBC, CBS, and ABC. Add to this, PBS, NPR, the New York Times, The New Yorker, The Atlantic, The Week, Newsweek, Harper's, Mother Jones, The New Republic, and the Commonweal. And there you have it, your major culprits.

Now add to this mix a custom-made network explicitly designed to push the left-wing narrative within and throughout the Black community. This network is called the Black News Network (BNN). Ironically, this station was co-founded by former Congressman J.C. Watts (R), but he ran into problems fully funding the project. Shahid Khan, owner of the Jacksonville Jaguars, became a principal investor and soon former CNN executive Princell Hair was named president and the rest is history. As always, whenever those on the right come up with a great idea, it falters and the left is there to pick up the pieces, put it back together, and use it to serve their own purposes.

One has to wonder why a prominent Black conservative such as J.C. Watts found it challenging convincing business minded conservatives to invest into something that could have been used to infuse the truth into these communities. I am talking communities those on the left have a firm and solid grip on. So tight is their grip that it is difficult to find a conservative station in areas under their influence. And where they do exist, they are often relegated to AM Radio. What our side has to come to terms with is that what is being pumped into our urban areas is toxic hardcore left-wing propaganda. And it is all anti-American and anti-Capitalism.

I do not know about others, but I consider this a national security threat. We must regard these communities as we did Cuba, East Germany (when it existed), the former Soviet Union, and so on, all a great threat. These were countries where the free flow of information was discouraged, denied, or banned. To counter the communist movement in these countries, we designed radio stations that allowed the voice of freedom to reach the oppressed with programs such as Radio Free Europe, Radio Liberty, and Marti Radio (Cuba Free Radio). These programs were designed to highlight the hard facts about the leadership in these countries and the tyranny they brought to their fellow countrymen and countrywomen.

I propose that we freedom lovers look upon our failing urban communities as oppressed countries within our country and put together a radio station we can pump the truth about their democrat leaders and the socialist and communist agenda they are trying their best to implement on US soil, as well as their desire to control us and erode our rights and liberties. This will be a radio station the left cannot block or interfere with electronically. I say, where J.C. Watts failed, we should pick up the mantle and go forth and succeed. Call it what you will, the Truth Channel, The True American Voice, or the Frederick Douglass Chronicles, it does not matter, though I like the latter. But we have to make inroads before our country is completely destroyed from within by the enemy within.

What I am proposing is just an idea, yes, but as with all great ideas, they have their beginnings as someone's dream. Disneyland and Disney World began with a dream by a man named Walt Disney. I would dare say that if he were to come back to life and see how his company was being run today, he would have a major conniption. Our Founding Fathers had a dream, too, and if they were to come back, as they did in my novel series, 'By George, The Radicals Are Back', they would also have a major conniption. What these great dreamers once envisioned and created have struggled to survive over time thanks to the enemy within.

Like Walt Disney, our framers are not coming back. But we are here. Let's do what we can with the technology we have and get the truth out to our minority community. Our political ancestors liberated the once democrat enslaved once before. Can we not lift a hand to do the same now, a second and final time in this economic enslavement the left has created, promoted, and kept going? It's time for intervention, I venture to say. It is time for us to engage the enemy within. It is time for us to stand up and defend what we believe in. and this time, we must prevail!

Personally, I think we can do much better than we have done to date. It is just a matter of whether we have the will to do it. What are your thoughts on this?
