Rupture at the REC

A Special Meeting of the REC called by Members

On July 28, 2022, the members of the St. John's County (SJC) Republican Executive Committee (REC) conducted a special meeting in accordance with the rules and regulations of the SJC REC and the Republican Party of Florida (RPOF) according to informed sources. The meeting was held at the Holiday Inn World of Golf facility in St. Johns County, Florida. In the absence of Roy Alaimo, the REC Chairman, Jaime Parham was elected Chairman and presided over the meeting. Mr Parham is an organizer for the North Florida Patriots group and also a frequent attendee and member of the Saint Augustine Tea Party (SATP).

Since January 20, 2021 and the questionable seizing of power under the cloud of a fraudulent election, membership in the RECs has been growing at a rapid rate across the Country. This has been true in the SJC REC as well, according to Peter Royal SJC REC Board Member and President of the Republican Club of Greater St. Augustine. The question put to Mr Royal was: "Are these the kind of members that will fit into the goals and ambitions of the RPOF and the Republican National Committee"? No real answer was given. Patriotic Americans are joining Republican Executive Committees because they feel they must do something to stop the destruction of America and there's no other place to go. It is believed joining the GOP will provide a path to a political solution, as opposed to civil war. The new inductees to the REC are people who are reform minded. Many are associated with grassroots organizations such as the Saint Augustine Tea Party, Republican Liberty Caucus and others. These new precinct committeemen and committeewomen are promoting grassroots candidates that the establishment Republican members will not accept, just as the Party's leadership never accepted Trump. The clash has resulted in many disruptive meetings and one canceled meeting. On at least one occasion the Chairman, Roy Alaimo, terminated the meeting without a motion for an adjournment because of the discord. It is the REC's Board of Directors' attempt to sway the membership from reform that caused the special meeting to be called. It was established that a sufficient number of members were present to form a quorum and that meeting was legally empowered to conduct business.

In all there were eleven motions made and carried, including the motion for adjournment. The motions addressed members' concerns regarding alleged discrimination and misconduct by the Board of Directors. Significant motions included the election of Ralph Evans as District 1 Chair on a voice vote with no opposition. Also significant was the reading of a resolution condemning St. John's County School Board's acceptance of porn in SJC schools. The resolution was read by Shawn Morrison, the current Chairman of the SATP. The resolution was amended to include funding for media exposure which resulted in a voice vote--no nays. Of similar interest to the members present was the removal of Jon Woodard as Executive Director of the REC. Many of the members present allege that Woodard committed a First Degree Misdemeanor when he filed a false police report during the REC March meeting. The motion passed without opposition. The only nay vote cast in the entire evening was on a motion to hold a no-confidence vote regarding the current REC Chairman, Roy Alaimo. The voting record demonstrates unity among reform minded REC members.

The question now remains whether the Board of Directors will recognize this special meeting of the REC members. According to Jamie Parham, "It really doesn't matter a whole lot because we now know the procedures with which to defeat them and we now know we have the votes." Failure for the Board to recognize this meeting will only reveal the depth of the corruption within the Republican Party.

Tea Party Prevails after a Decade Long Battle

From the SATP's point of view, the special meeting of the REC members marks a culmination in struggle that began over a decade ago with the SJC REC. Lance Thate, former SATP Chairman and a founding SATP member had the following to say:

“Grassroots organizations with a propensity towards Constitutional Governance are rarely infiltrated by the Democrat Party. This is because their agenda and talking points are hard to conceal. Such grassroots organizations are infiltrated by the Republican Party with an eye to use the enthusiasm to promote their candidates. So it was with the SATP and operatives from the REC in Saint Johns County, Florida. In my day, I was one of three SATP members who made it into the REC--the last one, as a matter of fact. There were a similar number of Republican Liberty Caucus members from a Jacksonville group. We had little influence or power; however, our presence annoyed them. We were often challenged by Jon Woodard. You see, some things never change. Bob Smith would remind us that we were doing no good with our publication and our demonstrations. While we only had three on the inside of the REC we often picketed their meetings with numerous people on the outside holding flags and signs. Marty Miller used to attend Tea Party meetings. We believed that he was there to keep the REC informed. We let it be known that a mass demonstration would occur. The REC hired off duty law enforcement as security at considerable expense. We intentionally had four old people show up. In another venue a REC operative used the Tea Party name for a radio show on WFOY which was funded by Democrats. They promoted RINOs. The former SATP Chairman, Eric West, hosted the show. SATP members demonstrated at the entrance to the radio station. West was later removed from the REC and now hangs out at the Trump Club. The special REC membership meeting was exciting for me to watch because we had the current Chairman of the Saint Augustine Tea Party, Shawn Morrison, reading a resolution with the presiding REC Chairman, who is also a Tea Party attendee and member. Many of the members in attendance were Tea Party members or supporters. In 2014, the Republicans had a program of “Control or Destroy” Tea Parties. Republican State Committeemen and Committeewomen met in Tallahassee to initiate the plan. Control or Destroy made little difference as Republican infiltration destroys grassroots movements either way. Now it appears that the political parties will either reform or be destroyed. The current corrupt condition offers no political solution. But I see Liberty on the march and the torch has been passed on to a newer and younger generation of Patriots. It's almost like I have seen the future and we win.”

Some History on the FBI

By Roderick T. Beaman

The FBI is the successor organization to the Bureau of Investigation which was supposed to be a temporary agency to investigate a corrupt land deal in the Dakotas and Montana. It became an example of Ronald Reagan's adage that there is nothing as permanent as a temporary government agency.

FB Image

After the investigation, it went into some dormancy but then was resurrected and became the Bureau of Investigation. It was notorious as an agency of 'easy touches' for corruption.

During World War I, under Attorney-General Mitchell Palmer, the Bureau of Investigation conducted raids and arrested German immigrants or people who even spoke German in public or voiced admiration of anything German. They were called the Palmer raids and were justified under the Espionage & Sedition Acts from the presidency of John Adams!

J. Edgar Hoover became its director and when it became the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the FBI was its first director. He stopped the corruption & focused its efforts on subversives, particularly communists.

He took its surveillance to ridiculous heights but he did keep a tight rein on the organization. No politician dared challenge him due to the dossiers he kept on anyone of note. When he died, I knew it would become a political tool & this is what we have today; the completely unjustified assault on Donald J. Trump.

Of course, Democrats are celebrating and will until it gets turned on them.

Travis Hutson Makes Hasty Retreat

Republican Club President Attempts to Suppress Tea Party Participation

On August 9, 2022 the Putnam Republican Club held its monthly meeting in Palatka, Florida. Travis Hutson, the Florida Senator from District 7, was the featured speaker.

The Saint Augustine Tea Party (SATP) had a meeting scheduled for August 9, 2022. The Tea Party meets on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of each month. According to Shawn Morrison, SATP Chairman, numerous Tea Party members wanted to attend the Putnam Republican Club (PRC) meeting as they wanted to participate in a dialogue with their State Senator, Travis Hutson. While the Tea Party does not endorse candidates, many individual members are supporting Gerry James who is running against Hutson in the upcoming Republican primary. In response, the SATP meeting was canceled affording its members an opportunity to attend the PRC meeting. Apparently this information was received by PRC President, Rhonda Williams, who called Gerry James. She informed him that Gerry James' supporters would not be allowed into the meeting because of their perceived extremism and violence. Elaborating on that, Ms. Williams indicated there would be a large law enforcement presence and that there would be arrests. This appears to have been an attempt to intimidate Gerry James and his supporters. There was no massive law enforcement present. All were allowed in and no arrests were made. Peace was maintained at all times. While Gerry James attended along with numerous supporters, including Tea Party members, the event did not provide the dialog desired.

According to Jaime Parham, North Florida Patriot leader and SATP member, the Patriot presence appeared to make the Senator nervous. He spoke of noncontroversial issues of the past and disclosed that dealing with lobbyists was the best part of his job. Many in the SATP speculate that lobbying activities extend to the Hutson family's massive development interests in Saint Johns County (SJC). Former SJC County Commissioner, Ben Rich, claims that the Hutson family controls nearly every political office, including the Sheriff, in SJC and with Travis Hutson in the Senate, the influence extends all the way to Tallahassee.

Absent in the Senator's remarks to the PRC, was any mention of the dastardly raid by the FBI on Trump's Florida home the day before. "RINOs have no concern about attacks on Trump, attacks on the 2nd Amendment, or even mentioning the fraudulent 2020 election," Parham said.

Hutson's Conduct Cowardly

Upon the conclusion of the Senator's address he made a speedy departure out the back door to a waiting golf cart that took him to a waiting vehicle at an undisclosed location. Hutson's hasty departure precluded any question and answer session. "His cowardly behavior is typical of the corrupt politicians who occupy positions of power in our society today. This may be acceptable behavior by those who subscribe to Party loyalty and interests first; and perhaps to many in attendance at the Putnam Republican Club tonight. However, politicians who will not face their opposition is a politician who will lead us to a struggle outside the political realm. That's a place we should avoid for it will be bloody," the SATP Chairman warned.

Edgerton Receives Order of the Confederate Rose

Dear Ms. Lunelle,

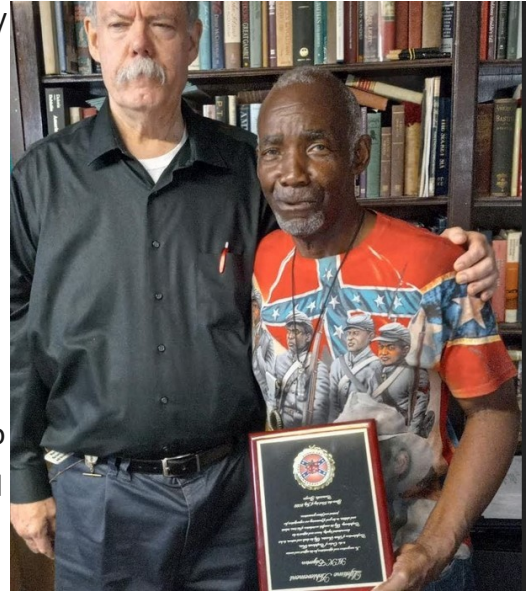

I would be remiss in my duty if I did not thank the Order of the Confederate Rose for bestowing upon me their breathtaking Life Time Achievement Award and Medal. I know that my mother is so proud and has reported it to all her Southern family in Heaven, and arguably all the Northern ones as well. She is as proud of me as I am of her when the North Carolina Order of the Confederate Rose named a Heritage Award in her name. I only wish that I could have been in Cartersville to receive it and hug every one. .The Honorable Kyle Thompson of Calvert, Kentucky, when finding out that I had suffered a heart attack and was in a bad way physically and fiscally, set out to aid me immediately. He would establish a Go Fund Me account. The Go Fund Me organization learned that ole' Edgerton was that black man who had the nerve and audacity to don the uniform of the Southern Soldier and take to the streets of America with what Southern folk deemed the Southern Cross (Confederate Battle flag), spreading a message that Southern red folk from the six civilized tribes, yellow folk from the Yang families, brown folk from the Latino family, and most of all black folk, freed and indentured of the Southern soil would come together as one to defend their homeland from an illegal invasion.

Go Fund Me would immediately decide they would not be a party to any action that would aid a black man whose modus operandi was shedding a light of truth on the decent Southern white folk and their honorable families of the past. They shut down the Go Fund Me account and refunded all monies not dispersed back to the donors with the intent of leaving me as destitute as they had found me.

With the help of the Veterans hospital, the Honorable Dr. Neil Payne, some donations, and the prayers of so many; I continue to forget my way back physically, and continue to battle as the good Lord would have me do. GOD bless you!

Your brother,

HK
