Conversations with My Babies: "You are the Greatest"

Dear Ms. Lunelle,

On this day of February 20, 2023, there they stood at my door 20 strong of my babies. Mr. HK, can we come in? "Yes", would be my reply, sensing something different in the way they looked at me on this morning.

After prayer, "Mr. HK" began Ms. Cynthia, "we have heard you describe this month of February that has been deemed 'Black History Month' as Beat Up On White Folk In The South' Month.

However, most of us have come to view it as something more sinister than that. It is also an exclusion of one of the bravest, if not most courageous, civil and human rights advocates of all time from the pages of not only Black History, but of history. And you Sir and your exploits are what we speak of.

On January 8, 2000, after the NAACP declared that the Confederate Battle flag was placed on the Capitol's Dome in Columbia, South Carolina in 1961 in defiance of the 1961 Civil Rights movement; you declared in a speech to a national audience that this was a lie. And that it was placed on Capitol buildings all across the South in commemoration of the 100-year anniversary of the War for Southern Independence.

On many occasions afterwards, too many to count, you would don the uniform of the Southern Soldier with the Southern Cross in hand and take to the streets touting a message that trained Cadre of black folks on Plantations all across the South made the implements of war, provided the food stuffs for General Lee's beleaguered army, stayed at home and tried to protect the defenseless old men women and children in the best way they could, and went off to war with a man they not only called Master, but also family and friend.

And as if this behavior was not enough, you would don the Confederate soldier's uniform with the Southern Cross in hand, and with your brothers and folks joining in along the way began a journey that totaled some 1,606.1 miles from where the Honorable Zebulon Baird Vance Monument once stood traveling 20 miles a day, 6 days a week to the Supreme Court building in Austin, Texas.

That journey would take you through North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia (where you would be given the Key to the City of Toccoa by a Black Mayor), Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana (where the Mayor of Logansport would declare it HK Edgerton and the Historic March Across Dixie Day), and on to the Supreme Court Building in Austin, Texas. And not to forget, after all this you would travel at the request of a predominant Black Historical Society to Buddah, Texas.

Shortly after this journey, you wrote a letter to President George W. Bush expressing why you made the journey to Texas and that your babies were being attacked and denied their 1st Amendment Right at the school house door for the expression of their Heritage. Not hearing from him; shortly thereafter the Republican Party invited you to the Capitol of North Carolina to hear a speech from President Bush about making Social Security private. You accepted that invitation from the Republican Party to attend. And from the seat on the third floor level, with a copy of the letter you had written to him; when he asked if anyone had any questions? You raised your hand, while everyone around you proclaimed he could neither hear nor see you. You climbed out onto a rail about 18" wide for about 10' shouting 'Mr. President, Mr. President', until you got his attention; telling him that you had written him a letter, but did not believe he was given it, and if he would read it when he got back on Air Force 1? Covering his eyes as he looked up, and hitching up his pants, he said yes I will, give it to that Secret Service Agent that has crawled out on that rail behind you before he poops in his pants!”

And continued Mark, “let us not forget your March from Chambersburg, Pennsylvania don in the uniform of the Confederate soldier when the citizens there told you that no one since the Civil War had entered Chambersburg don in the Confederate soldier’s uniform since the Battle of Gettysburg. And there you were making your way to Gettysburg in defiance of a Black man who had built a gallows with the intent of hanging the Confederate Battle flag.

Let’s not forget the Purple Heart given to you by a Vietnam War Veteran as you made a March to the internment of the Hunley submarine in Charleston, SC..

Yes Mr. HK, let us not forget your recent sojourn to Harvard University don in the uniform of the Confederate soldier as you crossed their campus with the Southern Cross in hand decrying the injustice of not having Confederate soldiers alumni in their Memorial Hall. And most importantly Mr. HK, that just recently (February 16, 2023), you added your name to a lawsuit to protect the Confederate Memorial at Arlington National Cemetery.

Mr. HK, we stand by our revelations...you are the greatest.” I told them with tears streaming from my eyes that I appreciate their declaration, but that I felt that there were other more deserving. God bless you!

Your brother, HK

Populist or Party

The effects of Political Parties on Liberty

It has been 224 years since George Washington died. History recalls his numerous comments regarding the effects of political parties on individual liberty. Washington clearly opposed the presence of political parties in the process of self governance. While political parties may have some short term advantages, the long term effects of “Party Loyalty” ultimately lead to a tyrannical party control over the interests of the people they pretend to represent. This is true for both parties.

TCCR Staff Screenshot

The current so-called two party system would be repulsive to our “Founding Fathers.” The Democrat Party, in its abandonment of the Constitution and the concept of a Republic, with its focus on democracy, has long ago evolved into a party better defined as the Communist Party of America. The Republican Party, at the same time, ignores the obvious voter fraud and accepts the apparent popular vote claims of the Democrat Party. This, coupled with the GOP’s attempt to gain approval from the propagandist media, eliminates any semblance of an opposition party. They function as a “Me too Party.” Both parties are serving the same masters; namely, the Rothschilds, the Rockefellers and the world’s Central Banks. The appearance of competing parties is an illusion. Whether the Republican or Democrat candidate wins, it is of no effectual consequence since the establishment party leaders are in control.

In 2009 a grassroots populist movement burst on the scene in the form of the Tea Party. While some Republicans embraced the movement, the leadership of both parties resisted the people’s will. There were no living memories of a time when the people determined who was going to be President so complete was the party control and George Washington’s warnings so evident and obvious.

People’s Will not to be Tolerated

By 2014 Karl Rove declared the Tea Party dead and the media and the established two party system closed ranks. The uni-party forces, if you will, had decided that “We the People” could choose between Hillary Clinton and Jeb Bush for President.

Out of the blue, a populist candidate in the form of Donald J. Trump came forth in 2015. The remnant of the Tea Party movement attached itself to this up-start personality. Early Trump rallies and Tea Party rallies were indistinguishable in form, which continues to this day. Trump’s eventual victory in 2016 was a defeat for the Communist Democrat Party, a defeat of the Republican Party's party bosses and a threat to Washington's "Deep State" that the two party system had created.

From the very first day of Trump's Presidency, the war with the establishment was on. It appears that Trump thought he could win over the Republican Party leadership by "Making America Great Again" and playing their game. In reality, the leadership was dedicated to a global agenda.

The Chinese Communist Party (CCP) and the UN's World Health Organization (WHO) imposed a fake pandemic on the world, with the idea of taking Trump down in the resulting chaos. Even the CCP's bio-attack failed to defeat the populist as the 45th President was reelected as the polls closed on November 3, 2020. The COVID virus and the shutdown, however, did provide the cover for a massive voter fraud that occurred in the early morning of November 4, 2020.

On January 6, 2021, 2 million people appeared in Washington DC to peacefully protest the illegal and fraudulent election results of November 2020. The Capital Police, Antifa, the Black Bloc Anarchists and the FBI staged a false flag insurrection at the Capital Building. The purpose of the operation was to criminalize Trump and Trump supporters present in the Capital that day and to create an environment in which bipartisan support for a Coup d'état could be achieved. The FBI then began arresting patriots and terrorizing others to keep further demonstrations from occurring.

On January 20, 2021 the Coup d'état was complete with the Capital Building secured with fencing and concertina wire. The 74 million people who voted for Trump were declared terrorists by the Communists. FBI raids on patriots were initiated including a raid on the 45th

President of the United States. The failure to rectify the conditions that led to the fraudulent election in 2020 only assured a repeat performance. Neither party recognizes that the election was a fraud. Instead the Republicans are showing signs of assimilating some of the techniques that the Democrats used.

The 2022 elections revealed fair elections in many locations are unattainable. Without election reform the people's choice will not prevail. The party bosses will select the candidates and their masters will choose the winner. Truly America has reached the point that George Washington warned us about over 200 years ago.

A "New World Order" (NWO) is in the making. Whether a Cyber attack or an attack by military forces, many casualties will occur. In order for the NWO to be accomplished, the concept of America's individual liberty must be destroyed. "The Shining City on the Hill" has to have its world beacon extinguished—a blackout! Are you going to sit by and let the darkness come or are you going to fight while the beacon still shines? The answer to that question could determine humanity's future for a thousand years!

Traumatized Americans A New Reality...

TCCR Staff Photos

On March 25, 2023 the Town Criers returned to the Historic District in St. Augustine, Florida to engage the public on the issue of Political Arrests. The purpose, according to Town Crier Chairman Lance Thate, was to test the resolve of the middle class focus group that appears on St. George Street each and every day. This constantly changing demographic has proved to accurately represent middle class values across the country. This valuable asset has permitted the Town Criers to forecast future political events well before their occurrence.

This publication has spent approximately 11 years publishing upbeat articles about Town Crier activities in the historic district of Saint Augustine, Florida. The message was on the positive side and meant as encouragement to those across the country who were engaged in the restoration of Constitutional governance. Our stories were not spun because TCCR based its content on original source material that was factually correct and derived directly from the people. The public LOVED the presence of the Town Criers and their political pronouncements. The founding Town Crier members considered themselves blessed to see the awakening in America.

However, the years have taken a toll on the ‘Founding Members’ of the Town Criers. The aging process continues with death, medical issues, along with some who moved away and just plain running out of steam due to old age. The dedication to Town Crier, however, was well illustrated by the presence of David Heimbold. David procured the signs for the March 25, 2023 event while he was still hospitalized and recovering from surgery. He was released from the hospital on Thursday and marching down St. George Street on Saturday. Town Criers report that he had no business being on the street with his post-operative condition, but love his dedication to the patriot cause. A new Town Crier wearing a MAGA hat assisted him in what must have been a difficult trek for the veteran of hundreds of appearances.

Count played the part. Town Criers were in Attendance.

The Town Crier’s most recent prior appearance was on March 23, 2021. Town Criers welcomed COVID slaves from the Northern States to the free State of Florida, demonstrating that the Government’s CDC protocol was nothing but disinformation regarding CCP’s bio attack on the world and in particular the United States. The people holding the signs are not Town Criers; they are members of the public interacting with the Town Criers on March 23, 2021.

Public Starts Distancing Itself

On January 6, 2023 the Tea Party along with other patriot groups conducted a ‘J6 Candlelite Vigil’ in St. Augustine’s historic plaza. About a hundred Patriots were in attendance. The Town Crier Chairman noted the general public did not join in. At the time various reasons were considered for the public’s non-participation. Later in the evening a march up St. George Street was a total bust. The Town Crier Chairman remarked that the marching group of about fifty were not properly identified and their purpose for being on the street was not made clear to the public. Communist demonstrations in the historic district always fail to gain public support and are done in isolation. They rely on the MEDIA to lie for them. This has never been true for previous patriot events. The J6 event did not have the general public’s participation. It was done in isolation.

This brings us back to the March 25, 2023 Town Crier event. In the past Town Criers on St. George Street were LOVED. Town Criers didn't need to go to the public. The public came to them to interact. This was totally missing this past Saturday. The change since the Town Criers' last appearance was breathtaking. J6 persecutions and COVID obedience training have induced fear, as never before seen. Today the people were like zombies – devoid of HOPE, full of resentment towards the rulers but paralyzed with fear. Stolen elections have consequences.

TCCR Staff Photos

Town Criers have been on St. George Street over 250 times. NEVER has this happened before. Look at the archived pictures at www.staugtea.com where there are thousands of pictures of people willingly joining the patriots. On March 25th, there was not one photo op of a person joining with the Town Criers. In the past, anytime the Town Criers appeared on the street, the public photographed them between 500 and 1000 times. On Saturday maybe one or two pictures were taken. Thate believes the public didn't want political pictures in their phones which might cause trouble with authorities later on. Previously, there were off days due to poor weather or signage; off days are one thing, but this was something entirely different. The COVID control mindset and the FBI's terror tactics have induced a state of FEAR; terror may be a better word. It was said after J6 that the 74 million people who voted for Trump were terrorists.

Tea Party Chairman Shawn Morrison did a great job of interviewing a few people; it was the only positive occurrence of the day. But getting the interviews was like pulling teeth. The telling story was the massive number of people who refused to be interviewed. There was no push back, no resistance, just a determination to not be involved.

The people HATE WHAT'S GOING ON, but are terrified by the government's Gestapo tactics with various federal agencies directed toward them. The J6 arrests, with the promise of more, the massive FBI raids and the talk of jail time without due process is terrifying to Americans who have never experienced this kind of tyranny before. Americans use to say, "It's a free country". No longer. The zombie behavior is not because they don't understand and are confused—they are traumatized!
