On December 2, 2023 the 66th annual Christmas Parade kicked off the Christmas season in St. Augustine, Florida. For the past fourteen years the Saint Augustine Tea Party (SATP) has been involved in this popular event. Our on the ground reporter reports that the TCCR Staff Photos 2014 parade was the largest he has ever seen. Adding to this SATP Chairman Shawn Morrison said, “Definitely one of the largest parade crowds we have been witness to.” Continuing, Morrison said, “People were mostly receptive of the SATP. I recall about 6 hard leftists that booed or nay-say-ed and only 3 who refused one of the 500+ copies of the Declaration of Independence and US Constitution that we passed out. Actually, when people realized that we were distributing our founding documents, others in the crowd requested a copy. We also handed out about 350 candy canes to the children. All in all, I believe the SATP was well received by the crowd. One gentleman told an SATP member that he remembered the Dartmouth from its trip to Washington DC in 2010.”

Former SATP Chairman, Lance Thate, has fond memories of past Christmas Parades. The one that stood out the most was when the 3%ers led the Tea Party’s Dartmouth in 2017. At the time, 3%ers provided security for Town Criers. Some traveled hundreds of miles from South Florida. According to Thate, the 3% personnel were positioned ahead of the tow vehicle. The first thing the public saw was 3% flags. As the parade started the 3%ers started the familiar USA, USA chant, What was incredible was the public responding back in kind. USA, USA sounded along the entire parade route as it wound its way through the Historic District. “No political party ever had the effect that the Tea Party has had on the public. Still true to this day,” Thate said.

SATP's First Parade in 2010

The SATP was four months old when it joined its first parade, The formation of the Town Criers was still six months into the future. But what was to come was already in the making. Note the quality of the period garments that would become a continual presence throughout the years.

Satan Comes to Jacksonville, FL

Dear Ms. Lunelle,

As Save Southern Heritage FL reported earlier this morning, the Mayor of Jacksonville, Florida (Donna Deegan - D) proclaimed that she had the legal authority to remove the Women of the South Cenotaph from the National Register Historic District of Springfield Park this morning.

Siding with her, the City Attorney said that because she procured the funding from a private entity (the Jessee Ball Dupont Foundation), she had the right to do so without a vote from the City Council who had earlier voted not to remove it because the City didn't have the funds or desire to do so.

The citizens of North Carolina saw a similar action carried out by the Mayor of Enfield, North Carolina almost a year and a half ago with the State Bureau of Investigation promising its people of the State it would investigate to determine if a crime was committed by the Mayor. To this day there has been no determination made, or given by the SBI.

In Jacksonville, just like what was done by a rogue Politician (Elizabeth Warren) at Arlington National Cemetery who was given a Congressional Charge to investigate and make recommendations, Deegan has stepped on the rule of law by overstepping her authority and removed a symbol of art from the Historic District where it presides; breaking her City's own ordinances meant to protect it.

The misrule of these governmental leaders continues to spread corruption across the South and arguably the North by poisoning the minds of Blacks against their White family, especially with the twisted accounting of history and the place of honor earned by Southern Blacks alongside their White family in the War for Southern Independence in an integrated arm forces drawing equal pay for the same kind of duty; something that could not be said for the segregated Union forces.

I can only pray that the Monument Protection Bill will pass in the State of Florida and will act as a catalyst for the rest of this nation. God bless you!

Your brother, HK
