A Few Brave Souls Attend a Candlelight Vigil for J6 Victims

Photos by TCCR Staff

On January 6, 2024 a candlelight prayer vigil was held in the Plaza de la Constitution in the historic district of St. Augustine, Florida. The event was organized by a local Facebook group of Patriots who gained notoriety three years ago defending Florida's oldest veteran's memorial against the Communist agitators bused into the City and by Communists within City government. The group, known as North Florida Patriots (NFP), has not forgotten the betrayal by City Officials and local law enforcement. The monument no longer stands in the Plaza, but the return is a NFP goal. Some of the NFP members have experienced physical abuse and false arrest from the St. Augustine Police Department in the past. We are pleased to report that no visible police were involved in the J-6 event.

On January 6th NFP held their 3rd annual prayer vigil for the J-6 prisoners. There were several speakers over the course of the evening. Passionate speeches were given by Shawn Morrison and Doug Russo.

But the most heart-filled presentation was made by Ben Pollock whose daughter, Olivia Pollock, and his son, Jonathan Pollock, were taken into custody by the Tampa office of the FBI in an early morning raid in Groveland, Florida. The raid took place on the J-6 anniversary.

The audience consisted of Three (3%) Percenters, Proud Boys and the SATP's Town Criers who made this story possible. Not present was the general public, because their government has traumatized them.

In addition to the Plaza activities, a march up the historic district's famous St. George Street took place with the general public demonstrating substantial fear in dealing with the issue of J-6 prisoners.

Town Criers Made a Pre-Vigil Appearance on St. George Street

The Town Criers, a Committee of the SATP, staged a Town Crier event in the late afternoon of January 6th. According to Town Crier Chairman, Lance Thate, the purpose of the march from the old City

Gates to the Plaza was to evaluate the public's reaction to J-6 prisoner issues.

The people who populate St. George Street tend to be middle class Conservatives and Libertarians from across the Country and indeed the world. The Town Criers have learned a lot by listening and studying the people's reaction to the Tea Party presence.

The public's response was mixed to say the least. There was no push back, but they did respond cautiously. The Town Crier Chairman was wearing a tee shirt that displayed POW J-6 logo. At the same time he carried a Tea Party sign. Along the route there were occasional whispers of, "there's the Tea Party." There were refrained smiles and careful acknowledgments for the Tea Party, but not so much the POW J-6 tee. Former Vice President Biden's tyrannical use of the FBI with continuing arrests is creating fear among the people.

The Town Crier Chairman commented,

"When the NFP people started their march, they paused before they departed the Plaza and started singing the National Anthem. It was great, except that only passing cars were being addressed. Had they continued singing on St. George Street, I think they may have had a better response. The great majority of the public were afraid to respond. The NFP marchers were dressed in black, militia T-shirts and they shouted to the people, sometimes using profanity. They learned their protest style from engaging BLM. It works for BLM because, though they alienate the public, they have the media working for them. When conservatives do it, they alienate the people, but have no MSM coverage; their effect is less than it could be. Town Criers have 12 years experience in dealing with the public on St. George Street. The historic district is like a theater stage with the audience surrounding the players. You have to put on the right show. This advice is not directed to anyone as criticism. The people in NFP are good, well-intentioned people. Whether we look at the NFP event or the Town Crier event, the answer is the same. The American people are being terrorized by their own government and it shows. America is no longer the 'Land of the Free and Home of the Brave'. Patriots of all stripes must learn how to give hope and courage to those who are lost."

TCCR Announces the Production of its First Video

This publication is pleased to announce the production of its first video. It is hoped that this is a first in a series of videos. We have a huge collection of pictures from our past articles that will aid us in this new endeavor. In reviewing articles of the past, we find that what we said a decade ago is still relevant today.

Some Tea Party members have expressed an interest in eliminating Microsoft from their computers. TCCR is proud to report that our computers are now free of Bill Gates and his invasion into our personal data. TCCR computers are now operating with Linux. This change has aided TCCR in the production of this first video.

Nikki Haley in New Hampshire

Dear Ms. Lunelle,

On Tuesday night, January 23, 2024 at 7:27 PM, on his television program Water's World, Water's would quote Nikki Haley..... "As Governor of South Carolina, I fought hard and successfully removed the Confederate Battle Flag from the Confederate soldiers monument on the Capitol grounds".

What Nikki didn't tell was that she relied on a photo shopped picture used by fake news of Dylan Roof holding the Southern Cross in his hand that had nothing to do with the murders he committed in the House of God. She would proclaim that she had to do something because of the pressure she was getting.

So she betrayed the "Vow and Compromise" given by the South Carolina Legislature when they removed the Southern Cross from the Capitol Dome and placed it on the Confederate soldiers' Cenotaph, where it properly belonged, and never to be removed again.

And when she broke this vow, her action served as a catalyst for the haters of our Southern Heritage and Culture (and American heritage) and began the process of carnage.....tearing down the Memorials of our Sainted dead, street names, school names, buildings and places that bore their names, as criminals like the rogue Politician Senator Elizabeth Warren who ignored Constitutional Law (Bill of Attainder) and deemed our armed forces and the citizens who righteously supported them as traitors.

The Republican Party asked, the Honorable President Donald J. Trump tried to restore her stature when he made her the United States Ambassador of the United Nations....before he pulled the US out. However, it didn't take long for her to betray him, too.

The people of the South will never forgive or forget her for what she did and it seems New Hampshire doesn't think much of her either! God bless you!

Your brother,

HK

Know thy Enemy

On October 30, 2008, Barack Hussein Obama declared, "We are five days away from fundamentally transforming the United States of America." Obama openly announced to the world that the final Communist attack on the American culture would commence. All those who understood the significance took note. But, in those days, "Political Correctness" reigned supreme. The great voices for the conservative cause remained fearful of openly identifying the true nature of the new President. Even the great Rush Limbaugh would not use the "C-word" for fear of not being taken seriously.

FB Image Santelli 2009 and hate.

On February 19, 2009, Rick Santelli made his famous rant which gave birth to the "Tea Party Movement," which was one of two movements in the living memory of the American people. The other movement was the "Civil Rights Movement." While it was the right cause at the right time, the Communists used it to further their agenda and the Communists exploit this great movement to this day with their projection of racism

Obama's Father was a Communist;
Mother was a Communist;
Grandparents were Communists;
Childhood mentor was a Communist;
Favorite College Professors were Communist;
20 year association with Liberation Theology which is Soviet Communism;
Closest Political Associates are Communists!

The "Tea Party Movement," which exploded on the scene on April 15, 2009, was created with many groups being formed and huge numbers at rallies and demonstrations. This movement has since evolved into the "America First Movement." While the MSM suppressed Obama's true nature, the Tea Party understood, in large part, who Obama was. One such group was the St. Augustine Tea Party (SATP). The SATP has the distinct advantage of being located in the oldest city on the North American continent. Its historic district attracts six million plus middle class tourists per year. The SATP's Town Criers engage the people, in the historic district, to inform and to evaluate the great American middle class. To test the TCCR Staff Photo 2012 public's reaction to the exposure of Obama's true Communist nature, the SATP approved of what would later be called THE BIG RED SIGN, pictured here, at an open meeting on May 22, 2012.

The question on that Memorial Day weekend of 2012 was, "Will Americans turn this country over to the very people our Armed Forces fought against"? Based on the number of people who approved the sign on St. George Street that weekend, the answer was HELL, NO! The Town Criers had displayed anti-Obama signs before which had proved to be effective. However, this sign was what the public had been waiting for. The public knew, in their gut, who Obama was. The media was not telling them. The political parties were not telling them. So, it was up to the Tea Party to make the revelation.

The Big Red Sign was the most popular sign the Town Criers ever carried. It was carried until Obama formally left the White House in 2017. In 2012 former Vice-President Biden witnessed “The Big Red Sign” on his visit to St. Augustine.

With the former Vice-President’s occupation of the White House today, Obama’s transformation of America continues with his de facto third term.
