What Ever Happened to the Tea Party?

The general public considered the Tea Party as closely allied with the Republican Party. The truth of the matter is that many members of both REC and DEC have a contempt for the voting public and populist movements in particular. We have created a video which shows the attempted takeover of a Tea Party that pushed back. Populist grassroots organizations do not mix well with the concept of party loyalty. Liberty is way more important than party loyalty.

With the advent of the populist movement and the birth of the Tea Parties, it has become increasingly difficult, particularly in the Republican Party, for the establishment to retain control. There are some tried and true techniques that seem to work. Changing meeting locations, canceling meetings and the break down of the rules of order are the tools that lead to chaos. Curtailing the conservative populist voice leads to disruptive meetings. Conveniently, the leadership blames dissident members for the chaos the leadership created. What happened in this video of a meeting that is over a decade old, is exactly what is happening at REC meetings across the country today. See if your current Rec meetings are experiencing this kind of behavior by reviewing this 8 minute video.

State of the Union Celebration

Over the past 30 years the number of people viewing the coverage of the “State of the Union” (SOTU) speech has varied between a high of about 67 million, in 1993, to a low of 27 million in 2023. Considering the increase in population over the past 30 years, the percentage of the American People watching the event is much lower today than it was in the past. In fact, only 10% of the American people are concerned with Washington’s extravaganza and pretend reality. This does not prevent the Main Stream Media (MSM) from covering the political charade on all networks.

According to nearly all reports, the SOTU 2024 speech has been categorized as a political speech. The proper Republican response should have been booing and jeers for the former Vice President as he delivered his campaign speech in the House Chamber. This fraudulent criminal should be exposed at every opportunity. Instead the Republicans presented a united traditional “Republican Shun”. The only Congressperson to correctly sense the true nature of the event was Marjorie Taylor Greene (MTG).

As Biden entered the House Chamber, Democrats occupied both sides of the aisle creating a grand entrance for Biden. MTG pushed through the adoring crowd of Democrats wearing her MAGA hat to challenge Biden.

Many news outlets are reporting about the hateful old man and his deluge of misinformation and outright lies relevant to the speech itself. We find the videos of the entrance into the House Chamber even more telling. The SOTU assembles the totality of the federal government’s leadership under one roof. The sea of all those faces of corrupt politicians smiling and and back slapping takes a strong stomach to tolerate the spectacle.

Though the vast number of Americans refuse to participate, the MSM force feeds this absurd display of a politician's only skill set, the craft of deceit and corruption. The awakening of the American people began with the Tea Party movement and continues on with America First. We find it interesting that out of those hundreds of individuals present, at the SOTU, there was only one who had the courage to confront Biden... Marjorie Taylor Greene. We ask where were all the other America First Patriots? Maybe there aren't any.
