The Culture Shock of May Day

FB Image

In the span of 75 years, May Day has gone from ‘May Baskets’ with flowers to Labor Day and now to chaos. Clearly, these people pictured here and those who demonstrated in Seattle are not laborers. These spoiled, uninformed groupies do not work. They live off the system. They are the anarchists who are here to usher in the repugnant philosophy of Barack Obama. These occupiers, anarchists, socialists, communists, and the like, are UN-American. Real Americans, as defined by our historic cultural experience, are born in and love Liberty. True red-blooded Americans are defined in the concept of individual liberty, self-reliance, and they are a moral people. The educational system that exists today excludes these concepts. It distorts our history and the meaning of words. It is no wonder that our youth emerge from the educational factories of socialism and communism as strangers. Political correctness originated in the Soviet Union. There is no room for political correctness in America

Opium Wars... Fentanyl

World War 3 has begun

Shortly after the Korean Armistice was signed on July 27, 1953, we believe that the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) reached the conclusion that a military engagement with the United States would not achieve their revolutionary goals. Reaching back to China's ancient past, the CCP embraced the idea that Sun Tzu (544-496 BC) expressed about warfare. "The supreme act of war is to subdue the enemy without fighting."

A "Covert War" began. Over time, that war has expanded into a world war with many fronts. Open the video for the report on the new "Opium Wars" that China has fostered upon the world and particularly the United States.

Why Christianity Must Be Destroyed And Why Liberalism Must Do It

By Roderick T. Beaman

Christians accept that we are all flawed. As part of our flawed status, we realize that at some point we will have to face judgment for our offenses. Those offenses range across the full spectrum of human sins, from taking the Lord's name in vain to murder.

Progressives labor under no such illusion. They know that they are beyond reproach; their hearts are so good. Since Progressives have no flaws, they face no judgment and have nothing to answer for. They are entitled to reject our forgiving Christian God because they have no sins. They are their own gods and that entitles them to despise Christians.

It also entitles them to their intolerance, their being judgmental, and their self-righteousness. They have relied on satire and ridicule and their condescension turns to outrage when it is turned around on them—hence their hatred of Donald J. Trump, Rush Limbaugh and Joseph McCarthy.

Joseph McCarthy investigated the extent of communist penetration of the American government. Extreme left-wingers and outright communists had been shepherded into Franklin D. Roosevelt's administration throughout his twelve-year presidency. Joseph Stalin wanted them in the administration to influence decisions and as sources of information. It wasn't hysteria. They were communists.

During World War II, it became clear there were many Nazi sympathizers in the United States. There was concern that the same mistakes not happen again with the new Satan, communism. McCarthy became a point man for the new efforts. The American Left, realizing that the communists were fellow ideologues in the movement to replace the worship of God with the worship of government, defended them and started the anti-McCarthy hysteria, much like what is going on today, with Donald J. Trump.

In retrospect, it was kind of odd anyway. On the one hand, American progressives would say there's nothing wrong with being a communist then rail at being called one or if one of their own was called one. William F. Buckley, Jr. once remarked that he never heard McCarthy say anything that matched in viciousness the things that liberals said about him. I have never heard of Trump saying anything that matched in viciousness the things his opponents say about him.

Rush Limbaugh was another example. The Left always thought that satire was its sole province. They relished subjecting religion and conservatives to their satire that was often mean and sacrilegious. Rush turned it around on them and they howled in furious indignation. They accused him of the hate that they harbored, something the Left has always done. How dare anyone use their methods against them? Rush was never mean nor vicious but the liberals certainly were and as Buckley had said about McCarthy, Limbaugh never said anything that matched in viciousness the things that were said about him.

Bill Raspberry was a great liberal (in every sense of the word) columnist. He'd been saying the same things about Rush as other liberals when someone challenged him as to whether he ever had listened to Rush. He admitted that he hadn't, and to his credit, he did listen. In a subsequent column he said that Rush didn't satirize women and minorities; that he was an entertainer and that he satirized liberals. Then, as now, liberals can give it but they can't take it.

And now we have the case of Donald J. Trump. Whereas Ronald Reagan also espoused conservatism, he nevertheless believed in making nice with liberals. They did not care. They were constantly hostile to him and did everything they could to block his moves. The take home lesson is that you don't make nice with liberals. Liberals do not reciprocate. Their agenda to direct society remains and anything is permissible to achieve that goal.

Donald J. Trump must have gotten that message somewhere along the line. He never even tried to get along with them. They are outraged. Hell hath no fury like a liberal scorned and they've reacted. They tried to impeach him twice, once meaninglessly, and a complete waste of time.

They have now unleashed a barrage of legal actions against him without precedent and unjustified. What they don't realize is that it can be turned around and used against their own, such as Joe Biden. These new precedents, if left unchecked, will likely result in permanent damage to the office of the presidency that will resonate to the detriment of the country and possibly lead to its destruction. It is that serious.

Understand, that the thought that we will eventually face judgment is a brake on our worst impulses. We know that we will be called to answer for our sins. By thinking there is no God, in their minds liberals get off that hook. Whatever system they foist on the public, they can just walk away, believing there are no repercussions.

And that is what leads to their excesses. Communism, Fascism & German National Socialism are ultimate agendas of progressivism and all were and are atheistic. As Mussolini said, "All within the state, nothing outside the state, nothing against the state," and that included churches, Gulags, Killing Fields, Auschwitz and the Cultural Revolution which all targeted religion and churches. It is no accident that church attendance is much lower among progressives. They can conceive of no power in the universe that is beyond their comprehension. They have no God but themselves; they are their own judges, jurors and executioners and they have executed 21 million under National Socialist German Workers' Party, 20-40 million in the USSR, 65-75 million in China, 1.5 million in Cambodia. They were all atheistic, either officially or functionally.

And so it continues. Liberals have been the driving force in moving America to secularism, a very dangerous journey.

Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn was the most prominent Soviet dissident. He'd published several books espousing the horrors of Soviet Socialism as a background but when he published The Gulag Archipelago in December 1973, he was stripped of his Soviet citizenship and forced into exile. It exposed the emergence and horrors of the Soviet political prison system. He first went to Germany but came to Vermont in the United States in 1978. Under Joseph Stalin, he would likely have been executed but the Soviet government of the 1970s didn't chance it. They knew it would cause an international uproar.

After the Soviet Union collapsed, Solzhenitsyn returned to Russia in May 1994, and said that he could not recommend American society because we had lost our spirituality. John Paul II said much the same thing. So do I.

Christianity has been our salve. Secular liberalism, whether fascism, socialism or communism, needs the populace to replace Christianity with the worship of government. They need to destroy Christianity. They are succeeding.

Has WW 3 Begun?

TCCR Social Media Screenshot

CCP is Demonstrating Covert War on Numerous Fronts Clearly the most Successful is the Bio-War on the Western World

There is much talk now about the possibility of a Third World War. Many suggest that “Global War” is the only way the Obama/Biden administration can stay in power. A nuclear or conventional war could be eminent. However the next World War may well be a covert exchange—cyber attacks, biologic attacks and Opium Wars, etc.—instead of bombs and conventional weapons.

Check out our latest video on Biological War...The China Virus.

The case can be made that the CCP has been engaged in unrestricted covert warfare against Western Powers since Richard Nixon and Henry Kissinger opened the global door to Communist China in 1972. The CCP bio-attack on the Western World and particularly the United States caused as many dead Americans as WW 2 did.
