Statues are the Sentinels on History

The lone individuals, who have stood sometimes for 100 plus years, are suddenly getting attention. Why? Because, the Communists are demanding their demise. This is so utterly classic Saul Alinsky. It is hard believe. It blows one's mind. But, let's regress for a moment.

By the mid 1930s Communists had infiltrated this great land. They were relatively few in numbers. But they were in our universities. Their presence was felt in Hollywood. Some of them were even in our government. One of them was Franklin Delano Roosevelt. At an unveiling of a statue of General Robert E. Lee, FDR said,

FB Image

"All over the United States we recognize him as a great leader of men, as a great general. But, also, all over the United States, I believe that, we recognize him as something much more important than that. We recognize Robert E. Lee as one of our greatest American Christians and one of our greatest American gentlemen."

In the 1930's, the Communist base was too weak to attack American history openly. Fast-forward to 2017.

The Communists now dominate the media, education, entertainment and probably the government itself. They are emboldened. They can implement Saul Alinsky's principles, first conceived in 1971, with impunity. A cardinal precept of Alinsky's tactics is the concept that you never ask your base to do something that is outside of their experience. But you always attack your opposition with concepts outside the opponent's experience and ability to understand.

A Communist has no problem attacking Robert E. Lee or, for that matter, George Washington. Americans, of course, would find attacking George Washington outside of their experience. So the radical left started by attacking Robert E. Lee in Charlottesville. In the wake of the Virginia Riots, they were successful in taking down statues of Robert E. Lee. They called him a racist and slaveholder.

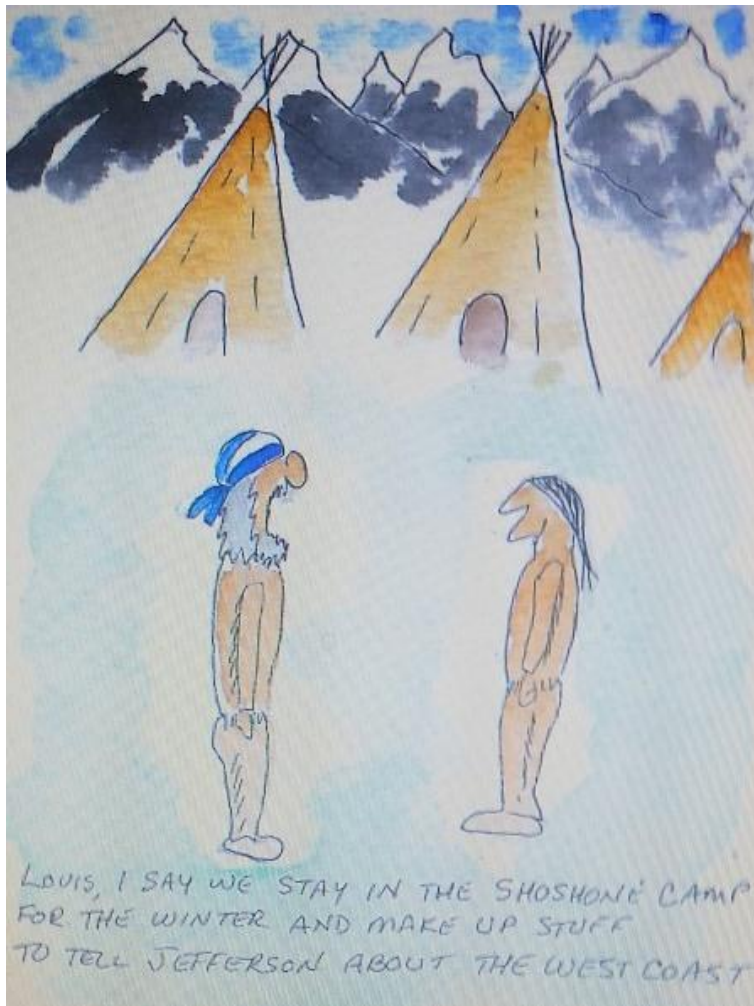

Following the Alinsky strategy, they moved to different targets. Within a week, there was conversation about taking down Mount Rushmore. Jefferson and Washington are under attack. The Jefferson Memorial is under attack.

The radical left, finding a weakness, will push and push and push until they demoralize you. They will push until they produce chaos. It is in chaos that they will transform humanity to their collective utopian dream. A dream that is totally and completely un-American.

For most of us that dream will be our elimination. It appears that the Communists are winning. It is an illusion. We outnumber them by a huge number. While they try to figure out which bathroom to use.... They will be vulnerable; so let us take the initiative. Aggressive strategies win!

Is Irma Coverage Just Part of Fake News?

FB Image

Five days ago, during his broadcast, Rush Limbaugh, attempted to apply conservative common sense as it related to forecasting the future of hurricane Irma's intensity and its movement. Limbaugh told his listeners that he was not a meteorologist. He merely suggested that he had his own thoughts on where the storm was headed based on his reading of the tracking maps. Projecting landfall of a hurricane when it is in the mid-Atlantic is more speculation than fact. Rush simply had the audacity to suggest that it might change.

The media has a vested interest in global warming. The warming scenario includes more frequent and bigger hurricanes. For the past 12 years Al Gore's prediction of more frequent storms did not materialize. Harvey, then Irma followed closely by Jose was seen as substantiating the global warming claim. The media commentators seized the opportunity. They have been claiming that Irma is the largest storm ever witnessed in modern times. Their audiences were told that Irma would make landfall at Miami and go up the East Coast, as a category five, devastating the entirety of Florida. It was always referred to as a category five and some people even suggested a new category six be created. The media also reported that Jose would provide a one-two punch for Florida. They reported that Irma would be followed by Jose, in spite of the fact that the computer models for Jose always showed a course that steered clear of any landmass. Predicting Miami as landfall for Irma, at this point in time, was impossible. The computer projections put Irma's landfall in North and South Carolina, Savannah, Georgia, the Keys, Miami, somewhere in the Gulf of Mexico and no landfall at all going eastward in the North Atlantic.

Rush Limbaugh was merely pointing out that forecasting Irma was too early in the process. Limbaugh's interference with the national networks fear mongering, as opposed to actual coverage, caused him to be branded a global warming disbeliever.

As it turns out, landfall was between Key West and Marathon. The category five hurricane was downgraded to a category three because of his encounters with Puerto Rico and Cuba. It came ashore as a category four. When it makes landfall again, it will lose strength and be reduced to category one, in short order. Southwest Florida clearly will have a very hard time of it. The media misinformation caused millions to be dislocated and put many in harm's way on interstates without sufficient fuel. Our leaders will claim that they saved the people. The reality is we have no leaders, we just have followers.

Hillary's Failure

On September 10, 2017, Hillary Rodham Clinton's latest book, "What Happened" was released. According to Wikipedia, "The book blames Clinton's electoral loss on James Comey, Vladimir Putin, Barack Obama, the media, Bernie Sanders and his supporters, Green Party candidate Jill Stein, sexism, white resentment, WikiLeaks and Clinton herself to a minimized extent."

It appears that Mrs. Clinton has now added the "Vast Left Wing Conspiracy" to the "Vast Right Wing Conspiracy" of the 90's to explain her failure. Hillary has spent her entire career, in politics, covering up one scandal after another. The criminal mindset never accepts responsibility for their criminal acts. Truth is always forced into the background to protect the criminal agenda. Her failure in the election of 2016 was predicted.

St. George Street Polls: Spot On!

The St. Augustine Tea Party's Town Criers Committee conducted random selection, face-to-face polls in the historic district of St. Augustine, Florida throughout 2015 and 2016. The demographics of the people that populated St. George Street were national in character. They were what remain of the working middle class, small business owners, construction workers, law enforcement, military and what are called just every day people. It was this composite of people that, in the end, elected Donald J. Trump, President. People from every state in the Union, about 6 million annually, created a demographic mix that permitted the Town Criers to make some extraordinarily accurate predictions.

One such prediction was that Hillary Clinton lacked public support; she never got the numbers she needed to be elected president. The major problem with the Clinton candidacy was the perception that she and her husband have been engaged in criminal activities throughout their careers. The public did not want Hillary to be their president. They wanted to see her in prison.

Drain the Swamp

"Draining the Swamp cannot leave the Clinton's escaping justice," according to the Town Crier pollsters.

Truth...

The First Casualty of War

by John Knapp

As Western Culture is allowed to deteriorate, so must everything within it. When education and historical facts are strangled, ignorance presides. Where political correctness bullies, common sense is pushed down. As national self-loathing is propagated, all heritages becomes suspect. When mobs run unchallenged, hooliganism will prevail. Where 'Social Justice' grows, liberty is imperiled. When lies become 'truth', life in America will be dangerously compromised.

But mostly, when God is absent, the left will out.

What to make of this leftist howling rush, to tear down American public monuments? To satisfy.....what, exactly? Where does this clamor for tearing down monuments - built to house America's history - ultimately lead? it's not just to satisfy the leftist rage, de moment? Will they one day get around to defacing Martin Luther King's memory, because they find out King was a registered Republican and he believed marriage was meant to be between one man and one woman?

This statue rampage is one more item on the leftists' punch list, to tear down America. How do you learn anything useful from history if you discard it? It's one thing not to learn from history. It's something else again to deliberately throw it away. When it comes to historical desecration, the radical left in America is gaining on ISIS. This statue rampage thing is radical snowflake-ism, un-American, stupidity on steroids.

For two generations, American kids have been ill-served by the lack of an honest education about American Exceptionalism being the political bulwark of Western Civilization and its values.

No, it's worse than that. Americans of all ages have been deliberately harassed by too many 'educators', 'journalists', and left-leaning public officials, all pushing a not-so-subtle leftist, anti-American agenda. To them, ever since Christopher Columbus (a white man) discovered it, America has been on the wrong side of leftist nirvana.

The counter-culture of the 1960s was in full resonance in Charlottesville last weekend, and intent on soon coming to a city near you. 3M, the Mindless Mainstream Media, is doing its best to convince the general public that the Conservative Right was there (it wasn't), and that the Conservative right started the whole brouhaha (it didn't). It's a big lie, all week, a fake news classic, one more trap meant for Donald Trump.

So, here are the players involved. What happened in Charlottesville was left on left violence, reminiscent of Commies vs. Nazis in pre-Hitler Germany, or Bolsheviks vs. Mensheviks during the Russian Revolution of 1917, to wit:

'Antifa' is short for Anti-Fascist. Their chief enemy is freedom of speech, which demonstrates.....they are Fascistic! They are hypocritical, sanctimonious, exactly what they claim to be against, because they are too stupid to know what Fascism really entails. They only know Fascism has a bad connotation, so anyone uttering speech they don't like must be a Fascist. Incidentally, members of Antifa threw the first punches and started the brawl.

Nazis were Fascists. Neo-Nazis are Fascists, too. Neo-Nazis don't know any history. They're too stupid to care about the history of Nazism, about the evils that sprung up under Nazism. There are fewer than 10,000 Americans stupid enough to carry the Nazi banner. These people are seriously-deranged, leftist lunatics. Charles Manson has a swastika tattoo on his forehead, right between his eyes.

What is a White Supremacist but a new iteration of the old KKK? For a century after the Civil War ended, the KKK was the enforcement arm of post Civil War Southern Democrats, both hate groups, both Fascist.

What is #Blacklivesmatter but a hate group? They foment violence everywhere they go. Barack Obama, had their leaders in to the White House for several meetings, probably to discuss 'strategy.' They are anti-white-America, anti-cop, anti-America in general. They are Fascists also, just too stupid to understand what they are.

Muslims weren't in Charlottesville that I saw. But it bears noting that Muslims were all in with Hitler during WWII. Islamism is basically a collusion of the criminally insane. Islam's main working principle boils down to 'total surrender, or death to you!', especially if you're Jewish. That's Fascist mentality.

Communists were present in Charlottesville, too. Commies and Nazis don't get along, even though they both have similar Socialist mentalities and very similar Fascist methods of oppressing the populaces caught under their hob-nailed ideologies.

What all these groups have in common is a variation of the same hateful mentality, and the political goal of total control of politics and people. This is despotic Fascism imposed by mob rule. And all of them together make quite a mob....and lots of noise, but they don't make a majority of Americans.

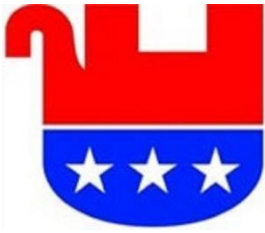

Finally, our bleeding heart, Socialist-leaning main stream media has been doing its best, drubbing and shaming the founding principles of Western Civilization out of the minds of Americans since the Korean War. Hate is an easy sell. Discontent is contagious. Advertising sells. A lie told often enough, becomes the truth, or so Hitler's Minister of Propaganda believed.

And, so it is, that the first casualty of war is the truth.

Populist Movement Rejects GOP Movement Bigger than Trump

The populist movement, historically, has been the property of the radical left. Progressives from Teddy Roosevelt's days on have made claims of representing the People. But the populist movement of the progressives has never attracted over 20%. Fraudulent ideologies generate failure. As President Trump has observed in Venezuela, socialism or communism delivers anguish, devastation and failure. Success and prosperity reside with the "Founding Principles", which enshrine Liberty.

The populist movement of today started in 2009 with the emergence of the Tea Party. The Tea Party is a right of center movement, with totalitarian systems on the left, and anarchists on the right. It's where vast numbers of the American people reside. When the Tea Party train left the station in 2009, it was boarded by Republicans who were excited about the great numbers of people which the Tea Party could attract. When the GOP discovered that they could not control the movement, they proceeded on a course of destroying the movement. As Republicans jumped off the Tea Party train, in 2016, Donald Trump jumped on. The American people gave the train their votes and it rolled all the way to Washington, DC and the White House.

So, when the populist movement correctly perceived the GOP's dirty tricks regarding the election in Alabama, "We the People" ignored the train's famous passenger, Donald J. Trump, and elected their own candidate, Judge, Roy Moore.

Swamp Creatures Fail in Alabama

The Tea Party has a great deal of experience with the GOP's subversion of its candidates. Republican insiders poured $13 million into incumbent US Senator Luther Strange's campaign. Republican leadership wanted a bought and paid for candidate. Roy Moore, spending just 2 million dollars, trounced the swamp creature. The question everybody is asking is why President Trump played into this scenario. Does he believe that his bread is actually buttered by the Republicans? His bread is buttered by "We the People" and they will throw in preserves as well. The Republicans will never support Trump's agenda."Lead the movement, Mr. President. Call your legions, they will come by the millions as they did in 2010. In 2010 there was a Communist in the White House. Today Mr. President, you are there to lead the people into the chambers of the Congress. The movement is bigger than the political parties; take charge of the movement. Get back on the Tea Party train!" encourages Lance Thate, Chairman of the St. Augustine Tea Party. The SATP is located in Northeast Florida.
