H.K. Edgerton Returning to St Augustine

H. K. Edgerton is the President of Southern Heritage 411, a member of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, a member of Saving Southern Heritage Florida and a past President of the NAACP in Asheville, North Carolina.

He is recognized nationwide as an advocate for Southern Civil rights and educating the public on the role of Black Southerners during the War Between the States.

Southern Heritage 411 strives to provide the truth as it pertains to the relationships and the experiences between blacks and whites in the South. They have struggled together to maintain the principles of a limited, democratic and representative government as espoused by America's Founding Fathers.

Mr. Edgerton traveled from North Carolina to address the City of St. Augustine Commissioner's meeting, held on March 26, 2018. But he was not allowed to speak. The following day, Edgerton made an appearance at the Loring monument. The Loring monument is the current focus of Ron Rawls' cultural war on Confederate and American History in St. Augustine. The St. Augustine Tea Party was there to greet H.K. Edgerton and thank him for his patriotic efforts.

Since then, arrangements have been made to have Mr. Edgerton as their featured speaker at their next open meeting. H.K. Edgerton will be returning to St. Augustine to address the local Tea Party group on April 10, 2018. The meeting is open to the public and is held in the rear dining room of the Village Inn. The Village Inn is located at 900 Ponce de Leon Boulevard, St. Augustine, Florida. The meeting starts at 6:30 PM.

IT'S TIME TO TAKE REV. RON RAWLS TO CHURCH

On April 7, 2018, Rev. Ron Rawls showed up on St. George Street, in the historic district St. Augustine, Florida to get some more publicity for his "Take 'Em Down" campaign. Yes, Folks, Ron Racebaiter Rawls, as the local folks know him, was in rare form. The "Stop White Supremacy" chant by the protesters who were with him fell on deaf ears as thousands of tourists, strolling down this famous tourist trail in the Oldest City, ignored them. The tourists didn't have a clue as to what was going on.

As one can see from this photo, the majority of protesters were white people from various groups in Jacksonville, Florida. Rev. Rawls commutes from Gainesville, Florida to the AME church in Lincolville, which is within the St. Augustine City limits. He uses various Communist groups from nearby Jacksonville for demonstrations. This is called diversity. A black community organizer from Gainesville, leading predominately white Communists from Jacksonville, down a street in St. Augustine filled with people from all over the Country who have no interest in what they are doing.

Rev. Rawls' campaign is to take down Monuments in the City that don't fit the Communist narrative. He failed to take down the Confederate Monument in the Plaza, so now he is attempting to take down the Loring Memorial adjoining the Governor's House. And last, but not least, he is doing his best to tear down a third Monument, the Echo House.

The Echo House is near and dear to a group of black grandmothers who want to stop Rawls from tearing it down because it is a historical Monument in the famous black center of Old St. Augustine. Rev. Rawls called these black grandmothers 'Coonies' and 'Coons'. Hard to believe but true.

The City of St. Augustine Commissioners voted to take back the Echo House since Rawls failed to live up to his side of the deal, highlighted by the fact that he sold the roof tiles years ago, kept the money and when the tiles were removed he let the Monument rot.

Bible Lesson 101 for Pastor Rawls: "Honor your Father and Mother". Disrespecting black grandmothers, who hold dear, the memories of their Monument, doesn't set well with the "Big Guy in the Sky". Rev. Rawls has totally disgraced himself and the AME Church should fire him and send him packing.

Town Criers Ask the Question

Latest St George Street Poll

On April 14, 2018, the Town Criers, a committee of the St. Augustine Tea Party, conducted a St. George Street Poll and asked the question that the “Deep State” pollsters do not ask, “Should Trump Fire Mueller?”

The demographics of the poll are national. The poll is face-to-face with random selection. The St. George Street Poll is conducted on the main commercial Street in the historic district of St. Augustine, Florida. People from across the country participate.

While some people would say that this is not a scientific poll, the St. George Street Poll has accurately predicted major political events well before any others. As an example, in January of 2012, the Town Criers, based on their polling, were able to predict that Mitt Romney would lose in a general election. In February of 2016 the Town Criers, based on their polling, predicted that Donald Trump would win the Presidency. Now they asked the question, “Should Trump fire Miller?” The results are as follows:

Yes: 64% No: 36%

The “Deep State” promoters in Washington do not ask this question. Instead, they suggest dire consequences if Mueller is removed. The Communists and Anarchists have pledged to take to the streets. There is talk of impeachment if Mueller is fired.

The election of Donald Trump, by the people, was a demand to return to equal justice under the law. Currently, the FBI and the Justice Department are not providing equal justice. They are shielding criminals. These top political figures, all the way up to Barack Obama, Hillary Clinton and their underlings must be prosecuted. That is what “Draining the Swamp” is about; nothing less. The St. George Street poll clearly shows where “We the People” are. Where are you, Mr. President?

Last Tea Party Standing

Trump Clubs are in Danger

Recently the St. Augustine Tea Party's Chairman, Lance Thate, asked the question, "Are we the last Tea Party standing in Northeast Florida?" There is an intensive cultural war underway. The Tea Party, as its assets permit, is involved in that struggle. Some of the SATP members put their bodies on the line. They take to the streets and find their support from wholly separate organizations. Perhaps an organization is not the proper term. There are patriots who are watching and who are prepared to take action. If it were not for them, Tea Party's Town Criers would be extremely few in numbers. The Town Criers have always functioned in relatively small numbers when engaging the general public. Engaging a demonstration, however, requires greater numbers.

The Liberty movement is still alive in the minds of conservative patriots. They are demanding Constitutional Governance. The SATP was not always encouraged to engage America's domestic enemies. There was a time when the organization was controlled by the Republican Party. They were a branch office of the Republican Party, according to SATP members.

The Republicans were interested in the Tea Party movement because the Tea Party could attract large numbers of people. Something the Republicans were incapable of doing. They saw the Tea Party's enthusiasm as a tool to use to elect Republicans to the House of Representatives in 2010. That worked out well for the GOP.

But Republican control of the House didn't work out well for the Country. Because for the next eight years, the Republicans continued to enthusiastically fund Obama's Communist assault on America. The Republicans are still funding Barack Obama's agenda. This is true in spite of the fact that there is a Republican President in the White House.

The relationship that the SATP and the majority of Tea Parties had with the Republican Party in 2010 is the same relationship that the Trump Clubs have with the GOP today. Trump Club members are predominantly grassroots, but their leadership is from the Republican Executive Committees (REC). The marching order from the Republicans is for the Trump Clubs to elect Republicans. They are using the "Tea Party Game Plan" all over again. The Tea Party's involvement with the Republicans was a disaster according to Chairman Thate.

"For the Republicans, it was all about control or destroying the Tea Parties. In the end, the Republican-controlled Tea Parties died from neglect which ended up with all those in the destroyed category. [See article date May 10, 2013 Entitled Control or Destroy... Official GOP Policy for the Tea Party in Florida <http://www.saintaugustineteparty.org/pdf/Town%20Crier%20Committee%20Vol%202%20No%2008.pdf> Ed]

The St. Augustine Tea Party struggled for several years with the local REC to gain its autonomy. The SATP is unique in that it not only survived the Republican assault, but it is still viable and functioning. It takes on tasks that the Republican Party has no stomach for," the Chairman said.

Continuing he explained, "We fear that the same experience awaits the Trump Clubs. If the entire Congress were made up of Republicans, they still would fight the President's agenda. The Republicans and the Democrats are both globalist political identities. Neither will allow Trump to "Drain the Swamp". The level of corruption from local precinct to Washington D. C. is that enormous."

Currently, the Trump Club in St. Johns County has about 150 people in attendance. The REC currently has about 25 in attendance.

News Flash... Trump Club Story Continues

Trump Club President Resigns REC Post

TCCR reporters have received information regarding the resignation of, Diane Scherff, the Second Vice Chairman of the St. Johns County Republican Executive Committee (REC). Her resignation from the REC will not detract from the focus on the Trump Club in St. Johns County, according to her resignation notice. Diane Scherff is the current President of the Trump Club.

When the news of the resignation was announced at the St. Augustine Tea Party meeting on April 24, 2018, Tea Party members displayed their approval of Scherff's decision. Some of the Tea Party's members are also members of the Trump Club. There has been concern within the Tea Party regarding Republican control of the Trump Club. [See Last Tea Party Standing article 4-23-18 Ed] articles on the expanded Facebook account. The criteria they used for friend selection consisted of Trump supporters, NRA supporters, Veterans and active Military, along with First Responders and the 3% Militia.

The news was considered favorable, on a local level, by those in attendance in the SATP meeting.

In order to obtain 5000 friends the staff has probably looked at over 10000 Facebook accounts and FB pages. The makeup obviously has a strong reliance on gun ownership and the second amendment. The staff reports that there is a militia forming across America, from North to South, East to West.

This is not something that involves the Democrats or the Republicans. For the most part, both political parties are being rejected. A Trump Army is forming and the symbol of the resistance is the Confederate Battle Flag. People are displaying, on their Facebook pages, combinations of the Confederate Battle Flag with the American Flag, combinations with the Gadsden flag or just the Battle Flag alone. Some simply state, "I support the Confederate flag".

This would not have been possible two years ago when Republican Governor Nikki Haley took down the Battle Flag in South Carolina. The assault on American culture at Charlottesville, Virginia and of course elsewhere across the Country has had a profound effect. Americans are waking up. The long sleep is over. American values, culture and history will not be trampled on. Patriots are acquiring the muscle to ensure victory.

One can only speculate as to whether Donald Trump is even aware of this phenomenon. The militia that is forming is a backup plan. It will be a response to the efforts of the Republican and Democrat globalists should they succeed in undermining the President.
