Strawberry Festival / King High School / Hillsborough County Commission

Dear Ms. Lunelle,

On Monday, March 2, 2020, don in the uniform of the Southern soldier with the Southern Cross in hand, alongside the Sons of Confederate Veterans, the United Daughters of the Confederacy, members of their family and friends, I would step off with them in the Annual Strawberry Festival Parade in Plant City, Florida.

Only once along the Parade route would we face a negative comment that was directed towards me as our contingency was received with a hero's welcome by the many who cheered, and shouted the Rebel Yell as our float moved along the Parade route. It was a great day in Dixie!

On Tuesday, March 3, 2020, I would don the uniform of the Southern soldier and post the Southern Cross, and my Black Confederate soldier Poster Board in the classroom of the Junior Reserve Officer Training class at King High School Tampa, Florida as a part of their Black History Month celebrations.

And, for seven hours, I would take my babies down the road of history; the Morrill Tariff and the support of it by Lincoln as he campaigned for the Presidency, the first 13th Amendment and the implication that it had that would have kept the African people forever in the economic institution of slavery, and most importantly the role that the Southern African played in support of their white family in the War for Southern Independence was the order of the day.

I would conclude my dissertation by telling those babies that to the Southern soldiers and their families, Red, Yellow, Black, Brown and White that the Confederate Battle Flag symbolize their Christian heritage and resistance to tyranny. And, that now in the 21st century there are many who for political or economic gain would rather see every memory and symbol of that noble army destroyed and desecrated.

HK Edgerton at King High School JROTC Class

And, the worse of it all is that there are still others who though being descendants of those noble soldiers by their indifference and moral cowardice would acquiesce to that destruction.

I can only thank the Chief, his Lieutenant, the Principal, and all those wonderful babies who welcomed me into their school.

On Wednesday, March 4, 2020 alongside the Honorable Attorney David McCallister, I would stand before the Hillsborough County Commissioners and deliver the following statement:" I am HK Edgerton, and I hail from the beautiful City of Asheville, North Carolina. Mr. Chairman, honorable members of the Commission, I am so proud to be back in your beautiful City and State once again".

I feel like I should leave a check somewhere because of all the fun I've had. And, I am so happy to be here in the Month of my mom's birthday as you celebrate Women's History Month. My mom is the only black woman to ever receive a Confederate State Funeral.

And, I want to thank the members of your Police Force that always make me feel safe as I stomp around so many of your events like the Strawberry Festival while don in the uniform of the Confederate soldier. And not to forget King High School who invited me in to speak to the Junior ROTC program as part of their Black History Month celebrations.

My only regret Mr. Chair is that I have not been able to attend Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church to hear your wonderful Pastor preach, and to hear its Angelic Choir sing. And too finally to meet an Icon of your community, the County's Poet Laureate, the Honorable James Tokley is icing on the cake of my bucket list. A round of applause would follow my remarks.

Mr. McCallister had earlier asked Mr. Tokley, would he write a poem in honor of Confederate Memorial day? His response was he would be glad to because it was a part of the American Tradition. What a fine African American man was my thoughts as he joined the Chief and his female Lieutenant at King High to that role in my heart. God bless you!

Your brother, HK

Trump Trumps the Dems

On March 7, 2020, the Town Criers conducted a St. George Street Poll in the historic district of St. Augustine, Florida. The poll is a face-to-face random selection. The demographics on the historic street are national in scope. The Town Criers have been conducting these polls since January of 2012. These polls have enabled the Town Criers to project elections well before others.

On this chilly March day, President Trump was pitted against the two leading Democrat candidates. The results are as follows:

Trump: 67%
Sanders: 13%
Biden: 20%

This is not the first time that the St. George Street Poll proposed a three way choice. During the 2016 election, the Town Criers often pitted Donald Trump against Hillary Clinton and Jeb Bush. The results of that three-way race were very similar to the contest today. Based on recent polling, the Town Criers can safely say that Donald Trump will be reelected in 2020 providing that the economy remains strong.

However, recent politicalization of the “Wuhan Virus” situation by both the Republican and the Democrat Parties leaves a great uncertainty regarding future economic activity. The “Deep State Globalists” seem to be determined to take down Trump no matter what the cost may be.

The 'Moderate' Party?

by John Knapp

Make no mistake; Obama is THE ONE who ordered the political hit on Bernie Sanders. Biden may be loopy and senile, but the rest of them think they can make the public believe Sleepy Joe's a 'moderate' democrat.

And, isn't that phrase the oxymoron of the political season! If Sanders was to lose to Trump, Socialism would take a mighty big hit for a long time coming. But Biden losing to Trump, well...Biden.....WAS... a 'moderate' democrat, you know. To paraphrase Ronald Reagan, 'Well, there they go again!'

All democrats have become morons, oxy- or otherwise. I get so tired of the irrational verbal and mental gymnastics the left puts forth on an hourly basis. It's like arguing with a lying, anti-American schizophrenic. That's what they've become.

No such thing as a 'moderate' democrat! They're immoderate democrats now, one and all. JFK might've been the last true moderate democrat, and he was shot by a committed communist, or so that story goes.

I'm guessing Obama, Hillary, Biden, Sanders, and Lee Harvey Oswald would have had a lot to talk about. Eventually, I suppose, fate will accommodate that particular meet-up.

And I hope it will be HOT there.

Testing the Crisis' Effect

Country Being Shut Down

To test the effects of the current crisis on President Trump's electability, the Town Criers conducted a poll in the historic district of St. Augustine, Florida on March 14, 2020. Though many cities across the Nation are shutting down upon the order of the authorities in charge, the traffic on St. Augustine's, St. George Street was little affected. Pollster, David Heimbold reports near normal crowds on St. Augustine's famous pedestrian street. It is estimated that 8000 visitors stroll the historic district daily and that they represent every state in the union. The demographics of the people on St. George Street have proven to be a reliable source of predicting previous Presidential elections in 2012 and 2016.

Based on the results of recent primary election results, Joe Biden appears to be the front runner among Democrats.

Accordingly, "POTUS 2020 Trump or Biden" was the face to face, random selection question for the public. The results are as follows:

Biden:	16%
Trump:	84%

In a similar time frame in 2016, April 30, 2016 to be exact, a St. George Street Poll revealed that Hillary Clinton only had 21% as opposed to Trumps 79%. In spite of the Wuhan Virus crisis, President Trump enjoys the confidence of the public and has in fact gained strength. The "Deep State Establishment" in politicizing the crisis is, at this point, not receiving the outcome it anticipated according to today's poll. We will keep you posted as the alleged pandemic moves forward.

This Outrageous Leftist Stampede

By John Knapp

This last week has been surreal, a politically-engineered, America-insulting, nationally-degrading episode for the Twilight Zone.

Corona virus is certainly something to be concerned about, but not of such awful potential as to throw away the economy. The panic out there is unreal.

This is exactly the reaction you would expect from a herd of soft, mis-educated, and irretrievably-spoiled brats.

Our parents and grandparents sure lived lives made monumentally scarier and more difficult by the events of their days. Worrying about toilet paper supplies would've been the last thing on any of their minds.

Fighting Marxism, Fascism, the Kaiser, Der Fuhrer, the Bolsheviks, the Chicoms (by proxy), the Flu Pandemic of 1918, the Depression of 1929 and much more, our forebears were positively Superhuman compared to their progeny....which is us.

The Leftist media has now talked this country into a panic where we've abandoned 1/3 of the value of what we all had invested in Wall Street. Wall Street is Capitalism. Capitalism is America's heartbeat. America exists because of capitalism's promises.

Yet, Life seems to have been turned upside down. The coming reverberations - financial and otherwise - are going to last a very long time. Federal nanny-state government is gearing up to be back to business as usual, whether Donald Trump signs on or not. But he will. The 'herd' will have its way.

Want proof? Even Me-too# has changed: Las Vegas casinos are lobbying for a bailout, too. Perhaps you heard.....

Saluting the political whimsy of the day is a sure way to get to where 'You can't go home again.' In spite of Donald Trump, Saul Alinsky's ghost is again roaming the American political landscape. All of a sudden, America has slowed down near that same foreboding Alinsky mile-marker.

And all of this, to somehow, in some way, at any cost.... put Donald Trump out of office? The vitriol of the Left is unfathomable to rational people. The vitriol of the Left is directed at rational people, Obama's and Hillary Clinton's oft-maligned 'Deplorables.'

Corona virus will come and go. Too many Americans will die from it, yet most will live through it. Covid-19 notwithstanding, must we chip away again at our country's basic promise, brought about by a vengeful, thoroughly divisive, out-of-control cabal of Leftists? Must we throw out the baby with the bathwater in this Leftist politically-manufactured panic?

Finally! A cudgel has dropped into Leftist laps, for with to beat Donald Trump to his political death, they hope, "America be damned".

Unless called out by ordinary Americans, the Left will keep it up, until unemployment does reach 20%, until people's retirements have been eviscerated, until the Great Depression was a lesser event by comparison, until they've scared the children half to death, until useful idiots, a.k.a. mis-informed or willfully ignorant voters, have brought Socialism down upon all of us.

How many Americans have already joined the cacophony of the moment, of surrendering their liberties to the relative 'safety' of the drug that is government?

What happened to the America where 'Anyone who would trade liberty for security, deserves neither'? The Leftist media and the Deep State are indistinguishable from one another. They are evil, conjoined twins.

Beginning sometime in February of 2020, an excruciating chapter of American history - and World history - is unfolding, right before our teared eyes.

Americans must be brave enough to put a halt to this outrageous Leftist stampede. Or else, get used to being stampeded.

A Nation in Shut Down Being Ruled by Fear

The Virus is Real Is the Pandemic Real?

The St. Augustine Tea Party's Town Crier Committee has been conducting polls in the historic district since 2012. The unique demographics on St. George Street have permitted the Town Criers to project political outcomes well in advance of other polls. About two weeks ago, we conducted our own most recent poll. At the time, we reported normalcy on the street. Today, however, the street is deserted. In the space of two weeks, the tourist activity in St. Augustine has been totally eliminated. A scene of emptiness is being played out across the Country. On a local level, the St. Patrick's Day Parade and the accompanying Celtic Festival were canceled. Restaurants have been closed, hotel reservations restricted and the tourist attractions are all closed.

On a political level, and poignant to this publication's purpose, the St. Augustine Tea Party's activities have also been eliminated. We were forced to shut down our meetings. Our activities, on St. George Street, are meaningless without the public to interact with. It has been reported that the Republican Club and, we assume, the Republican Executive Committee meetings, as well, have also been canceled. No word on the Trump Club meetings, but we assume they are also eliminated. This publication has no interest in the Communist Democrat Party.

On a national political level, political campaigns have been suspended, elections postponed, expanded mail-in elections created, the Democrat's senile presidential front runner shielded and Trump rallies, so offensive to the Progressive Communists, eliminated. To the drumbeat of a fear mongering media the "China Virus" is attempting to bring the American economy to its knees.

Its focal point is the destruction of the Trump Presidency. However, it goes farther than that. Over the past eight years, Town Criers have interviewed thousands of people who have fled the horrors of Socialism and its ultimate goal...Communism. Based on our experience, what we are seeing in America today is a Communist revolution in the making. This is what Socialism looks like in the beginning, according to those from Communist countries who have lived through it.

Politicians at all levels are experimenting with just how much loss of Liberty Americans will tolerate before they take action. Across the Country there are assaults on the First, Second, Fourth and Fifth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States. Politicians with impunity are restricting the First Amendment rights of Freedom of Religion by shutting down church services, the Right of Assembly by limiting the size of groups, prohibiting gun sales violating the Second Amendment and violating our Right to Privacy and Due Process as expressed in the Fourth and Fifth Amendments.

During the last crisis, in the latter years of the George W. Bush administration, the media conducted a campaign of fear similar to what they are doing today. Long before the economic freeze of 2008 occurred, they beat the fear of recession and depression drums. At the time of the longest-running prosperity in history, many people had no memory of what a recession or depression was like. Preying on fear, the media was successful in bringing down the American economy. The Communists were successful in eliminating Liberties as a result of the crisis during both the Bush and Obama Administrations.

And now the Media is going to try to do it again. How pervasive is the media bias? All cable, broadcast TV media and printed press are playing the campaign of fear mongering today. And anyone in their organizations who would challenge that premise will not be tolerated. As an example, the Fox News organization fired Trish Regan for comments made on her March 9 broadcast that suggested that the pandemic fear was an attempt to bring down the President. A view widely held among many conservatives in America. Apparently fair and balanced doesn't apply in the pandemic issue.

But the American people are not looking for fair and balanced; they are looking for truth. Trump's exposure of the media has opened a new vista. Will the American people permit cheap local and state governmental officials the power to rule? Or will they seize their natural rights, as defined in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution, and rule themselves. Their decision will determine whether their posterity will live as slaves or free men. Our forefathers chose Liberty. What say you?
