

It does not require a majority to prevail, but rather an irate, tireless minority keen to set brush fires in people's minds." –Samuel Adams

EXTRA! EXTRA! Special Election Edition

Editor's Note from We The People

We were there.

Who are we? We are the People of the Real Saint Augustine Tea Party, which still meets at the Village Inn, and has been meeting there continually for two years. We are not the Tea Party that moves from place to place, cancels meetings and only allows 'Invited Guests'. We are the one that is not controlled by the GOP. We were there when Randy Covington's cabal removed $6200.00 from our Tea Party account. We know all about Randy Covington. We know how the REC 'Establishment' has protected him and in the process they have discredited themselves.

We know that Randy Covington knows nothing about mosquitoes. However, we also know that there is a $3,800,000 surplus in the Anastasia Mosquito Control account, some real estate to be sold, some commissions to be made and some salaries to be increased! This is not to accuse anyone of anything, but to keep watch for the three stooges who are running in the primary and general elections!

We were there, standing just 6 feet behind Ken Bryan when, unprovoked, he became outraged and ugly to Cindy Di Corrado and Eric West. We had been standing at the back of the County Commissioner's Auditorium for several hours holding the Gadsden Flags. We saw and heard everything. We were two of the four eye witnesses not interviewed by the Sheriff's department. Here, you see some pictures, taken by one of our members on a Flip camera. And, there are more.

Better, yet, we are still here reporting the news! We are proud members of the Fourth Estate...the Press. We are 'The Press' like it used to be. We have pledged ourselves to tell the ugly truth about corrupt politicians and candidates who have questionable qualifications or behavior. We are the Town Criers.

Thank God for freedom of the Press. Too bad there is not more of it, these days!

Breaking Special Edition August 6, 2012, St. Augustine, Florida

The St. Augustine Tea Party does not endorse political candidates, and the Town Criers believe that the voting booth is a 'sacred space'. In America we have a 'secret ballot'. You are not obligated to tell anyone who you are about to vote for or who you voted for... However, we do have a list of candidates with whom we have had personal, real life experiences, and, thus, they are on our NOT TO VOTE FOR list:

#1. On Top of the List is Edward "Randy" Covington who is running for Mosquito Control Board and for re-election as St. Johns County Republican State Committeeman. Randy is a Karl Rove 'wanna be' and considers himself a 'mover and shaker' of the St. Johns County Republican Executive Committee (REC). Randy and Eric West, his fellow REC Board Member, purport to be the 'go-to-duo' of the local REC when it comes to matters dealing with the Tea Parties. Randy and Eric have created two 'shell corporations' - the St. Johns County Tea Party, Inc. and the St. Augustine Tea Party, Inc. (not to be confused with the Saint Augustine Tea Party). Both of the 'shell corporations' are front organizations using the "Tea Party" name to dupe naive citizens into joining their REC political efforts and to vote for their candidates. Pictured above is Randy giving his last instructions at a Saint Augustine Tea Party meeting before he lost control of the group.

Our advice is NOT TO VOTE FOR Edward 'Randy' Covington. Vote for another candidate of your choice for Republican State Committeeman in the August 14th Primary Election.

#2 & #3. Next on the list are Brian Iannucci - running for Board of County Commissioners, and Kim Kendall - running for State House of Representatives. Both of these candidates are political newcomers who have strong ties to Randy Covington. Randy Covington is Kimball's campaign manager. Iannucci proudly announces he was endorsed by the "St. Johns County Tea Party" which is a 'shell corporation' controlled by Covington. Both of these candidates are very personable and likable - but hardly equipped, in our opinion, to hold the offices for which they are running.

Our advice is NOT TO VOTE FOR Brian Iannucci for Board of County Commissioners, or Kim Kendall for State House of Representatives. Vote for another candidate of your choice in the August 14th Primary Election.

#4. Next on the list is Incumbent County Commissioner Joseph "Ken" Bryan. His violent outburst against Tea Party member, Cindy DiCorrado, when she offered him a copy of the US Constitution during the June 27, 2011 Town Hall Meeting was reprehensible to say the least. Bryan backhanded the Constitution booklet offered by Mrs. DiCorrado and knocked it onto the floor, stating that he does not believe in the Constitution. He then requested a St. Johns County Sheriff's Deputy to remove Mrs. DiCorrado from the meeting alleging that she "was accosting his wife". Bryan then proceeded to remove the, then, Tea Party Chairman Eric West, who came to Mrs. DiCorrado's aid. Eye witnesses saw Commissioner Bryan in a fit of rage. Free speech did not extend to the Town Hall meeting if you disagreed with the Commissioner. Bryan is also a former Democrat activist from the D.C. area.

Our advice is NOT TO VOTE FOR Ken Bryan. Vote for another candidate of your choice for Board of County Commissioners in the August 14th Primary Election.

#5. Our advice is NOT TO VOTE FOR Robert T "Bob" Smith for Mosquito Control District. He does not fit the profile of a Mosquito Control guy and is another REC Operative. Mosquito Control works well so why fix something that is not broken.

Republicans need to remember that just because someone has an "R" listed by their name does not mean they are the best candidate. Check their credentials –

"R" could stand for Rascal.

NOT TO VOTE FOR list for Primary (and General for those still standing)

State Representative: Dist. # 17 Not for Kim J. Kendall

County Commissioners: Dist. # 1. Not for Brian Iannucci

 Dist. # 3. Not for Ray Quinn

 Dist. # 5. Not for Ken Bryan

Mosquito Control Seat # 1. Not for Bob Smith

 Seat # 3. Not for Edward 'Randy' Covington

 Seat # 5. Not for Gary Howell

State Committeeman
State Committeewoman

Not for Edward 'Randy' Covington
Not for Liliana Kurpanik

Footnote: There are many fine people on the ballot. Remember, who you vote for is your own business.
