Is Florida Up for Grabs? New Trump Clinton Poll Shows It Is Not

Photos by TCC Staff

The question everyone is asking, "Is Florida a battleground state?" According to the George Stephanopoulos' Sunday morning show, for the sake of their campaign strategy maps, Florida was shown in the various scenarios as a "Blue State". The result being that Clinton has the necessary electoral votes to be President, according to ABC. While Reuters News Service, at the same time, was distorting their poll to give Clinton the advantage in an unprecedented act of professional malpractice according to Pat Caddell.

A post-convention poll, conducted by the St. Augustine Tea Party's (SATP) Town Criers, in a local venue on July 30, 2016, shows that Florida is not even a battleground state. The poll was a face-to-face, random selection of Floridians taken at the "Farmers Market" which takes place on Saturdays at the amphitheater in St. Augustine, Florida. The results are as follows:

Clinton	18%
Trump	61%
Neither	21%

"While the political parties and the establishment media use techniques to satisfy their ambitions and agendas, the SATP conducts polls reflecting the opinion of the people. The political parties are, for the most part, not part of the conversation," Dave Heimbold SATP Media Chairman and pollster said.

Photos by TCC Staff
Five members of the St. Augustine Tea Party visited the "Farmers Market" held at the Amphitheater on July 30, 2016. The Tea Party's attendance motive was to test the people's First Amendment rights. About a year ago, the Tea Party was successful in eliminating free speech zones from County parks and extending free speech to the entire park facilities. This was opposed by a progressive loop involving the St. Augustine Beach Civic Association, the Mayor of St. Augustine Beach, Andrea Samuels, St. Johns County Chairperson, Rachel Bennett, the County Attorney Patrick McCormack, and his staff, County park employees and the members of the Amphitheater Management team. ## Left-Wing bias Pushed Aside by the People

"If we listen to the County Attorney or Park Officials the restrictions on free speech are done in the name of public safety. Fortunately, the County Commissioners on a 5 to 0 vote rejected this Communist stance. However, there is a bias among some of the vendors at the Farmers Market. This is true at the Amphitheater and at the market at Pier Park as well. There are artisans, artists and those that produce various handicrafts that demand self-expression, but are entirely incapable of granting free speech to others. This is a small but vocal minority. I cannot say I understand this elitist attitude,” Lance Thate SATP Chairman explained.

One vendor commented, “I’m glad you are here, thank you, but you will never change their minds.” “We are here to preserve their First Amendment rights. We do that by demanding ours. If one man loses the right of free speech all men, lose,” the SATP Chairman said.

The real story is that the general public was very much interested in the Tea Party presence as can be observed in the pictures above.

An Opposition of One

The only real opposition that the Tea Party received during the morning that they visited the Amphitheater grounds was from the manager of the “Old City Farmers Market”, one Carey Del Ray, pictured right.

Ms. Del Ray has been a consistent opponent of “Free Speech”. About a year ago, she confronted the Tea Party demanding that they continue their activities in the free-speech zone, which was a small piece of land outside of the public view. When the Tea Party refused, she called the police. Free speech prevailed then and it did today. With no legal basis for her challenge to the Tea Party’s First Amendment rights, she resorted to a technique we have experienced from communists before. She proceeded to take a video of the Town Criers in an effort to provoke, berate and belittle the Tea Party presence.

TCC Staff 8-22-15

She made a fool of herself; the public simply wouldn’t join her. The Tea Party reports that they had a similar situation at Pier Photos by Park with one of the vendors. They not only prevailed in that encounter, they were honored for their service by the public.

Carey Del Ray clearly demonstrated her opposition to free speech has nothing to do with protecting her vendors, her business interests or providing public safety. Her behavior was simply political. “Progressives seem to think that free speech is about their right to promote their agenda. Any speech that opposes them violates their First Amendment rights and should be silenced. Folks, there are a lot of progressives in the County bureaucracy and among County politicians. Progressivism is not a political philosophy or definition, it is a tactic used to promote Communism. Progressivism is an incremental process to achieve a goal that never can be admitted,” Thate, the SATP Chairman volunteered. <https://www.facebook.com/towncrier2010/>

DNC's Real Face Revealed

For the past 100 years of the progressive moment, the cardinal rule of deception, deceit and anonymity has been firmly in place. During the first two days of the DNC's convention, the true face of the progressive Democratic Party was revealed. The stark silvery gray, devoid of any red white and blue flags reflected the international Communist domination of the Democratic Party. The agenda of the Communist Party USA and the agenda of the Democratic Party are now united firmly and completely. So confident are the Communists, at this point in time, that they exposed themselves before the entire world. The motivation for this unusual occurrence was for the express purpose of instilling fear.

The agenda of the Communist Party USA and the agenda of the Democratic Party are now united firmly and completely. So confident are the Communists, at this point in time, that they exposed themselves before the entire world. The motivation for this unusual occurrence was for the express purpose of instilling fear.

Rush Limbaugh saw the reality. Limbaugh told his radio audience, "Black Lives Matter, New Black Panthers, Occupy Wall Street, stripping God from their party platform, transgender bathroom advocates, pro-death panels, baby butchers, a candidate who violated the Espionage Act thousands of times, sexual predators, pedophiles, illegals, Shariah Muslims, Marxists. That's the Democrat Party today."

The Mask Restored

Donald Trump has suggested that he is responsible for the restoration of the "Red White and Blue". Perhaps, Mr. Trump is becoming more of a politician in the sense that he takes credit on an opportunistic basis.

This sharp contrast between the first two days and the last two days was orchestrated long before Mr. Trump's comments. First, the fear, both inside the convention and outside; it is now understood that, the DNC was orchestrating the protesters outside. That information was learned from the DNC's email hijacking. Then we have the horror of all that the progressives have been creating before our very eyes, and finally, the salvation. Hillary is the salvation along with the "Red White and Blue", along with history and the "Founding Fathers". A play to the Tea Party movement that Mr. Trump has forgotten. Members of the St. Augustine Tea Party, supporting Trump, were rejected at a Jacksonville Trump rally on 10-24-2016. [See TCCR October 24, 2016 Ed]

Tribute was paid to Bernie Sanders and his followers. But Sander's people didn't buy it. Vast numbers of them left the convention. It has been reported that the DNC had to have paid people to fill the seats. Trump claims he is going to get the disgruntled Sanders people. "We think not; they will stay home, vote Green Party or vote Libertarian. While Trump courts, idealistic Communists, Constitutional Tea Party patriots wait in the wings," a St. Augustine Tea Party spokesman said. The American people will not see the real face of the Democratic Party again during this campaign. <https://www.facebook.com/towncrier2010/> Please like our Face Book page.

The Media Blitz

The RNC and DNC Convention process had just been completed when the first Reuter's Poll reported a double digit Clinton bounce, as reported on August 1, 2016. This difference in poll numbers was entirely due to a change in method. This false indication was picked up by all mainstream media (MSM) television channels. Then there was a barrage of totally false statements. They were recognized as false statements but were repeated again and again on all networks. Suddenly the network polls and the establishment political polls have Clinton in a double-digit lead. The battleground States are clearly

Clinton territory. Republican leadership questions spending money on a failed Trump campaign. The Democrats suggest that he is unfit to serve. Republicans talk about, perhaps, a new candidate. Never has the assault been so complete in recent times. One would have to go back to the attacks by the media, by the Republicans, by the Democrats and by everyone in Washington on one lone Senator from Wisconsin, in the 1950s. That assault on Joe McCarthy, Chairman of the Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations or PSI, was equally complete. The attack was so complete that the term McCarthyism has become a universal term for indicating slanderous assaults. For younger readers, McCarthy used his PSI Chairmanship to investigate the presence of Communists in various governmental organizations and in Hollywood's motion picture industry. The proceedings were shown on television and fascinated the entire nation at the time. The media and both political parties annihilated Senator McCarthy. A review of his accusations, in the light of the current circumstances, demonstrates that he was amazingly correct on nearly every point.

The Establishment in Plain View

When Liberal styled media and Conservative styled media join forces, the globalist agenda appears in plain sight. When a conservative media outlet suppresses conservative dialogue, the news is being manipulated. An example occurred on Newsmax TV on August 11, 2016. Dennis Michael Lynch, a staunch conservative and avid Trump supporter, was cut off by his own producer and promptly fired. Lynch claims that the self-described conservative network was imposing segments and scripts that included cuts in positive Trump coverage. When he went off script, the screen went black and his show, "Unfiltered", was canceled. This kind of control is also applied to Liberal and Conservative politicians. What these diverse groups and identities have in common is, "The Money". "Follow the money", has been a true and tested axiom. The American people are being exposed to the fact that the media and politicians are under the control of International Bankers. The central banks that control the money supply are in charge. These private bankers want a world government with centralized planning and a world without borders. International bankers and large corporations profit from government transactions far greater than they can making private sector loans. They prefer regulations which limit competition. Free and enterprising people are difficult to govern. The middle class is being redefined to include nonproductive people. Policies are in place to eliminate middle class productivity. Since the end of the Reagan administration, these globalists have made great strides. Donald Trump would take apart the trade agreements and close the borders. This is in direct opposition to the New World Order (NWO) agenda. Every president since Roosevelt has facilitated this elitist ruling class. When McCarthy tried to expose them in the 1950s, all the political and media forces came together and annihilated him. It appears that those forces are gathering again with the express purpose of obliterating Donald Trump.

The Real Campaign

While the media blitz campaign proceeds, it claims that the Trump effort is over. However, if the truth be told, Trump crisscrosses the country. Trump is putting in 18 hour days. He frequently addresses more than one rally per day. As the media scrutinizes every word Trump delivers, the real story is ignored. The real story is the overflow masses that attend his rallies. Mr. Trump is attracting between 5,000 and 20,000 people at each event. And the number is only affected by the capacity of the structure in which the rally is housed. On the other hand, when Mrs. Clinton makes a public appearance, she often attracts only several hundred attendees, if that.

The polls that we hear about, almost on a daily basis, are polls taken of registered voters in selective demographic areas. The St. Augustine Tea Party has been conducting polls since January 2015 on a random basis, face-to-face with a national demographic environment. These polls are not necessarily registered voters, but they do represent the public. It should be noted that in this election, there will be people voting for the first time ever. Over the last 18 months Donald Trump has prevailed on a very consistent basis, with Hillary Clinton barely breaking into double digits.

Florida is a battleground state, according to “Mainstream Media”. Local polling in Florida, however, reveals a totally different picture according to Tea Party pollsters. According to Peter Royal, a volunteer at the Republican headquarters, 8 out of 10 people visiting their office are there to obtain Trump campaign paraphernalia. Mr. Royal reports that normally this material is given to interested parties at no cost. However, Mr. Trump’s campaign materials have value and the local Republican organization is raising money by selling the material to the public. If one surveys the area, the only signs to be seen are Trump signs. This reporter has yet to see a ‘Hillary for President’ bumper sticker in Northeast Florida. Trump bumper stickers are prevalent everywhere. Before Trump signs were available, homemade signs were seen. “This is what a grassroots populist movement looks like,” a Tea Party Pollster offered. <https://www.facebook.com/towncrier2010/> Please like our Face Book page.

Glenn Beck has a Virus

An Open Letter to Glenn Beck

Dear Mr. Beck;

I have followed your career since your days at CNN. Every day at 5 o'clock I made it my business to watch your show on Fox News. I have never had an interest in "The Five". Your investigative reporting served the country well. Your exposure of Van Jones and others, as Communist operatives, in the White House, the caliphate exposure, your connection of Obama to the radical revolutionary tactics of Saul Alinsky, the money interface with George Soros, all served to help preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Liberty of American people. Thank you for your service. I lost track of you when you left Fox News, except for an occasional interview here and there. Several months ago I acquired access to "The Blaze" programming. I was surprised to find that you had endorsed a politician and were actively campaigning for him. I had always viewed you in terms of an investigative media personality determined to seek the truth. You have demonstrated that you have the capacity to transmit that truth with great skill to your listening audience.

Your ability to look down the road and to see what's beyond the curve has always been very impressive. Your connecting the dots and predicting the future, has been remarkably accurate. However, when you joined the political intrigue, as an operative for Ted Cruz, a large piece of your credibility was chipped away. And now, you persist in doing yourself great harm, by continuing your political attack on Mr. Trump. The primary is over and your candidate did not win. I can understand your disappointment because my first two choices are not in the race either.

Mr. Beck you have contracted a virus ...a political virus. It is attacking the body of your work. The fever that accompanies this illness is causing you to use poor reasoning in defining Mr. Trump. His attack on political correctness with the use of four word sentences allowed Mr. Trump to play the media...a strategy which won him the primary. You are, in your fever induced confusion, allowing the establishment's "Dirty Tricks" dialogue and Trump's own four word sentences to define Trump and Clinton as equal partners in evil. If Jeb Bush had been the Republican nominee, I could agree with you that both candidates were equally evil as the Bush and the Clinton families are political crime organizations. You recently compared the country, Hillary Clinton and Donald Trump in an analogy. It involved a baby, a microwave and a blender. You consider the nation in the hands of these two people as equally dangerous. I believe that your body is wracked with fever disabling your normal perceptive talents. Your political virus is making you appear arrogant. Your job is to present the truth to the American electorate. It is the people's job to determine the future, not yours.

My loyalty has always been to the "Tea Party Movement" and Donald Trump does not represent that movement. Mr. Trump got on board our train; he commandeered the train and renamed it the "Trump Train". I am not happy about this but I do see the reality of the situation. Under a Hillary administration, we will not be able to apply our constitutional principles. Under a Trump administration, we will be able to partially apply those principles and can try to bring Mr. Trump along. In the meantime, we, in the Tea Party Movement, will be on a side track waiting for our next assignment, in the cause of Liberty. Glenn, take a cold shower of truth to reduce your body temperature and starve the political fever. I hope you continue your investigative reporting of the truth and abandon this political operative experiment.

No One is Listening to Establishment Media

Results of the Latest Trump-Clinton Poll

Since the conclusion of the DNC convention, the media has been on a "Blitzkrieg" against Donald Trump. Not since the McCarthy days of the 50s has the assault been so universal and so relentless. According to the 'special interest' polls, Donald Trump supposedly has been forced into a deep cavern, from which he will never recover

Photos by TCC Staff

Mr. Trump is about to be knocked out for the count. It is a done deal. It's hopeless...or so claims the establishment media. The campaign is over! The damage inflicted on Trump is far in excess of any candidate's conventional advertising capacity. No one, not even Trump, has a war chest of funds capable of stopping the establishment media's attack. Has Donald Trump finally been stopped? Well, not exactly. Consider the results of the St. George Street Poll:

For approximately the last 18 months, the St. Augustine Tea Party, through its Town Crier Committee, has been conducting random selection, with face-to-face polls in the historic district of St. Augustine, Florida. Five million people visit the district per year. People from every state in the Union are represented. The demographic is national. A poll taken on August 20, 2016 revealed the following:

Trump	61%
Hillary	24%
Neither	15%

If you consider the poll that was taken on April 30, 2016, you will see that Hillary Clinton has gained 6%. It is the best performance she has had in 18 months. The roar of the media cannons clearly has been heard, but the public is not listening. Donald Trump has remained, consistently, around 60% for the past 18 months. "It's Morning in America again," a Tea Party member said. <https://www.facebook.com/towncrier2010/> Please like our Face Book page.

Suppression of Political Free Speech is Tyranny

Photos by TCC Staff

Tyranny at the Beach

On August 23, 2016, a group of St. Augustine Tea Party (SATP) volunteers assembled at the St. Augustine Beach City Hall to protest recent action by the City Commissioners to restrict political free speech on City property. According to David Heimbold, SATP Media Chairman, "A considerable number of signs were along the road in front of City Hall on Saturday. When I returned on Sunday .all the signs were gone." Mr. Heimbold was acting as an individual on behalf of Debra Maynard, a candidate for Sheriff in St. Johns County. Mr. Heimbold called the St. Augustine Beach Police Dept. to question why the signs were removed. The officer who responded had no explanation for the occurrence.

Rose Bailey, a candidate for St. Augustine Beach Commissioner seat 2, reported that the City Manager had no knowledge of the sign removals. "These restrictions on speech are always done on weekends with no fanfare," Bailey said.

Other candidates present were Peter Royal running for mosquito control and Kelly Lorbeer running for Republican State Committeewoman for St. John's County.

"The Tea Party does not endorse political candidates. But some of its members are supporting or running for elected office," Lance Thate, SATP Chairman explained. Continuing Thate said, "The Tea Party has been involved in First Amendment issues, in the area, since 2011. We have been successful in eliminating restrictions on free speech on both Federal and County lands. About a year ago, we expanded free speech at Pier Park, which is located in St. Augustine Beach. We believe some of the players involved in the restricting of free speech at the Park are the same as those who are trying to restrict political speech at City Hall."

According to the "St. Augustine Record", a few weeks ago, an ordinance was passed regarding signage in the City of St. Augustine Beach. "The Tea Party would like to remind the Commissioners who voted 5 to 0 for the measure, that they are bound by their oath of office to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of Florida. Free speech is not something for them to decide regardless as to what a Jacksonville Lawyer with an agenda might say. The Tea Party vows that this is not the end of the issue, it is the beginning," protesters unanimously agreed on. . <https://www.facebook.com/towncrier2010/> Please like our Face Book page.
