The Real America Spoke

Election 2016: County-Level Results

The Tea Party Saw it Coming

The Town Criers, a committee of the St. Augustine Tea Party (SATP), has been engaging a national audience on the streets of the historic district of St. Augustine, Florida since mid-2011. The Town Criers have used various techniques to connect with the public's opinion.

In January 2012, the Town Criers were able to predict the Mitt Romney Republican nomination and his defeat in the general election. As early as February 2016, the Town Criers predicted that Donald J. Trump would be the next President of the United States. It did not matter whether he ran as a Republican or as an Independent. Trump would win in spite of the Republican Party. "It's not that we're so smart. It's because we listen to the people. It seems no one else is doing that," Lance Thate SATP Chairman said.

Fake News Revealed

In spite of corporate mogul television broadcasts, the obscene amounts of money spent by political activists of both parties in the name of progressive politics and the assault by the print media, the American people elected, in a landslide, Donald J. Trump. This is the climax of a conservative movement that started with the Tea Party in 2009. The media for the Communist Left was rejected by the public. Let's go back to election night.

Early on election night, Fox News' progressive reporters were preparing their audience for a Clinton victory. Council on Foreign Relations member, Charles Krauthammer, led the way. At the same time, CNN was reporting Donald Trump ahead in Florida, Iowa, Michigan, Wisconsin, North Carolina, Ohio, Indiana and Texas. It seemed clear that their reporters expected Clinton to win many of those states once the population centers started reporting. It was interesting to see these two creators of Fake News at Fox News and CNN struggle with the reality of the election. No one could understand how the polls and the media got it so wrong. No one foresaw the coming defeat for Hillary.

The News is about People not Pundits

The News Pundits were shocked at their inability to get the election story right. They couldn't just admit, "We got it wrong" and still expect the public to listen to them. So they started blaming it on dis-information that they labeled as Fake News, which is coming from New Media sources on the Internet. Immediately, steps were taken to curtail free press. Facebook screening comes to mind.

What the Communist Left media chooses to forget is, it is "We the People" who make the news. And the way you get the news is to talk to the people, not to each other. This is what the Town Criers, a committee of the St. Augustine Tea Party (SATP), has been doing for almost five years in the historic district of St. Augustine, Florida. They have been talking to the national audience which appears on St. George Street daily. As early as January 2015, in a poll between Sarah Palin and Hillary Clinton, it was clear that the public was not going to elect Clinton to anything. Palin got 74% against Hillary's 6% and 20% wanted neither. When Hillary was polled with Bush, Rubio or Trump, throughout the entire primary season, she could barely break double digits. In a three-a way race between Bush, Hillary, and Trump, Hillary was always the loser. In April, a St. George Street poll revealed that 93% wanted her indicted for her criminal activities.

Hillary's inability to get elected has been consistent throughout the entire election process. All you had to do was ask the public face-to-face, one-on-one. "ABC, CBS, NBC, CNN, Fox news and the entire print world are the source of Fake News." Dave Heimbold SATP Media Chairman declared.

Obama's Farewell... And Good Riddance

What should have been a grand moment for American history, the election of the first Afro-American president, turned into a disaster, a long nightmare. But now, eight years of Communist occupation of the White House is coming to a close. The damage to our nation has been great.

In the capital of black-on-black murders, Chicago, Barack Obama addressed his faithful. Using a handkerchief, he wiped away the tears as he realized his opportunity to distort history, from the White House, was coming to a close.

A Democracy or a Republic?

Obama gave an excellent delivery of a well-crafted speech invoking the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution and the Founding Fathers. From Obama's point of view, America is all about being a Democracy. Apparently, a Harvard education omits the fact that we are not a Democracy. We are a Republic. Nowhere in our founding documents, does the word 'democracy' appear. And, any research about the Founding Fathers' opinions, would clearly show that they had a disdain for democracies. A Democracy is the tyranny of the majority, something that would appeal to the collectivist mind, but not the liberty minded people who founded the American Republic.

The word democracy is mentioned because Mr. Obama used it 20 times in his speech. This is greater than the combined total of all other presidents in their farewell addresses. Communists use the word democracy when they are retreating. They use the word transforming when they are advancing. Perhaps that is why Michelle Obama, who was in the audience with her daughters, has reverted back to her loss of hope.

"I am sorry to say that during my many years, I have never seen an administration so clearly racist as the Obama White House. Instead of uniting Americans, he used the race card at every turn to divide us. It could have been a time of great healing among Americans. Instead, Obama used his time for political gain in his attempt to transform America, so sad. Obama was never able to rise above his radical community organizing experience. Communist community organizers do not build, they destroy. My own choice for President during the 2016 primary was Ben Carson. He struck me as a very intelligent man who could adapt to any task that might be placed before him. But what I admired most about Mr. Carson was his ability to come off as a sincere and good man. I am pleased he will be in the Trump administration."

The quote above is from Lance Thate, Chairman and founder of the Town Crier Committee, which is a committee of the St. Augustine Tea Party. The Town Criers carried signage which exposed Obama as a communist during a substantial portion of Obama's time in the White House. A picture of the original battle battered sign first carried in early 2012 is shown on the right.

“We now move into uncharted territory with the election of 2016. Our Town Criers stand ready to provide whatever service the cause of liberty may demand. I doubt that many members of the Town Crier Committee, who labored tirelessly during the eight years of the Obama occupation, could thank the Obama’s’ for their service. For them, it is just good riddance, the Town Crier, Committee Chairman concluded.

Good Bye, Obama

Take Your Commie and Brotherhood Friends with You

by D.P. Heimbold

"The whole head is sick, the whole heart faint." Just love that quote. It is the picture of the USA. A brain dead Giant with a faint heart beat! If we ever needed a Health Plan it is Now!

But, Dear Citizen, it is a Mental-Health Care plan that we need! With a Sociopath at the helm of the Head of State and a crew of gangsters from Chicago, we have had the patients running the asylum for the past 8 years.

The heartbeat of America is the 25 + million small businesses in the United States who do not need the government's help, direction or money. They are self-starters. They make the Country run despite government interference. They have taken a serious hit from the out-going Communist Central Government's taxes and regulations. But Barack Hussein Obama, the impostor and resident jihadist, along with his propaganda media machine (ABC, CBS, NBC, CNN) are destined for the ash heap of history. Goodbye, good riddance! May we suggest Gitmo as your retirement home?

Amazingly, with all the bad news, 124 Million Americans are still working! Have you noticed all the cars on the road, all the food in the stores, all the restaurants packed with customers? Electricity is still flowing through the electric lines to your homes. Water is still running. Toilets are still flushing through an amazing set of pipes to the sewage plants and have been doing so for over 100 years. As a matter of fact, the Infrastructure of the United States of America is magnificent! The stinking soon to be Ex-President, BO, should go back to Kenya, where sewage runs down the streets and people live in squalor, and let him fix their infrastructure! Or go to Liberia and help turn on the electric lights in the Capital of Monrovia, where American Educated, Charles Taylor, Drug-lord Gangster, changed a Republic into a latrine. The USA has layers and layers of backup systems and safeguards in our infrastructure. The Ex-President did not know what he was talking about. Remember, Obama's "shovel ready jobs?"

There are tens of thousands of bridges and tens of thousands of miles of wonderful roadways in good condition. Let's do a reality check on "shovel ready" road construction that our demented Ex-President promised to create. Anyone that knows anything about building roads in the USA knows it is the SLOWEST process in the world. Forty years is the average time for an Interstate Highway, 25 years for a State Highway, 3-5 years for a local road and 26 years to pave the dirt road in front of our house!!!!!!

Dear Senior Citizen, Obama Care is designed to "put you to sleep" before your God appointed time. Yes, the same man who voted four times not to revive a child from a botched abortion designed his failed "Obamacare" to regulate your healthcare in the latter years of your life! God forbid! Check the fine print in your "Living Will". Don't pass-out on the stress tread mill. Do Not Resuscitate might just kick in! Yup, many Seniors have been put to sleep (killed off) accidentally-on-purpose in your own local hospitals.

We have had a mentally ill person in the White House and still have a Congress full of lunatics! They have spent too many years reading books and many have no business experience. They are Stupid and you can't fix Stupid. Worse, they are like their father, the devil. They are liars: they lie in the morning, they lie in the afternoon and the lie at supper time. Politicians have always been that way. But now with the newly converted Islam-o-philes, they love death, too!

If it was just Mental Illness, that would be one thing. But this crew are Community Organizers. Let's break that down for the Government Educated audience. Look closely at the word Commune. The etymology is "to make common"; as in Communist. These people are Communists with a twist. They are of the Fabian type Communists...the intellectual class of liars, birthed in England and, for the last 100 years, have infiltrated the educational institutions in the United States through John Dewey, Aldous Huxley, John Maynard Keynes and a host of other Fabians.

"The Fabians have been, throughout their history, political and social chameleons who have, through stealth and deception, changed their outer skin to infiltrate every political, social and educational institution around the world, particularly in Great Britain and the United States. Speaking of a chameleon, the primary symbol of the Fabians is a wolf wrapped in a sheep's skin. I do believe that there are not 2% out of 100,000 born again American believers in Jesus Christ that know what a Fabian is or how they are trying to destroy the Economy. However, they all have heard the scripture, "My people perish for lack of knowledge". Problem is they never applied the scripture to themselves! We are a Nation of ignoramuses!

Well, the atheist Marxists (Communists) are in Control of the Federal Government's bureaucracy and the ignorant masses of Americans don't have a clue. They are waiting for their next hand-out from the Fabians. It's pathetic.

President Trump has his work cut out for him. But for God's sake and ours, don't let him call on academia.

What you might not know is that Keynesian Economics is taught at Harvard where George Bush got his MBA. His 'gentler conservatism' led him not to ever veto a government spending bill. Obama went to the same school. Imagine that! Here is a written statement by that devil Keynes, himself: "Lenin is said to have declared that the best way to destroy the Capitalist System,(that is, the Free Enterprise system that the USA has used to invent and create wealth) was to debauch (destroy) the currency. By a continuing process of inflation, government can confiscate, secretly and unobserved, an important part of the wealth of their citizens. By this method they not only confiscate, but they confiscate arbitrarily; and while the process impoverishes many, it actually enriches some. As the inflation proceeds and the real value of the currency fluctuates wildly from month to month, all permanent relations between debtors and creditors, which form the ultimate foundation of capitalism, become so utterly disordered as to be almost meaningless; and the process of wealth-getting degenerates into a gamble and a lottery." John Maynard Keynes, 1919.

Gee, that sounds like what has happened to our banking system. They call it Quantitative Easing...Tea Partiers call it gang-rape of our bank accounts. Untying the socialist mess and kicking the lazy free-loaders back to work is going to be a thankless task for President Trump and his staff. They need the help of the Frontline Activists, the foot soldiers with the Tri-Corner hats, and Gadsden Flags, who go head-to-head with the commies. The Tea Party has been quietly building a vast force of like-minded-citizens that will be ready, again, to stand-up and rally for NO MORE TAXES on April 15th.

TAXED ENOUGH ALREADY

The Peaceful Transfer of Power

Once you realize they are Globalist Puppets, and NOT on our side, everything else comes into focus and the mystery is solved. Donald Trump is mounting an America FIRST Counter-Revolution! Are you with him?

The Inaugural Address

A Transfer of Power to the People

On January 20, 2017, a peaceful transfer of power occurred in Washington DC. It was the transfer of power from Obama to President Trump. There was also a transfer of power between Democrats and Republicans. But the real story is President Trump's commitment to return power to "We the People".

Globalists Astounded at Trump's Inaugural Address

Four of the five living former Presidents were on the stage when President Trump gave his Inaugural Address. President Trump's affirmation to transfer power from Washington to the people, can only be perceived as a repudiation of the work of five former Presidents. As the television cameras panned the reactions of the former Presidents who were there, it was obvious that they were troubled. The stoic expressions on their faces concealed their disbelief of what they were hearing. The shock and awe of the President's statements was not well received among the elitists' members of Congress either.

Groups like the Saint Augustine Tea Party (SATP), have long understood that a Globalist Communist revolution was underway. The Tea Party has called for resistance from the beginning of the 'Movement' in 2009. It looks like America's new President understands the issue. Donald Trump will have lots of resistance from the established leaders of both political parties. And the Communist left media will be relentless in their attacks.

God speed, Mister President.

Liberals Get Religion?

by John Knapp

I just read an essay by a self-proclaimed liberal who was trying to couch his liberalism in Christian religion. Is this approach to be the next liberal wave-let? Hah! American Liberalism has morphed into a force mostly at odds with Christianity.

To my knowledge, the only faith of late on most liberal minds is the fervent belief that humans are directly to blame for Global Climate Change. That, and Donald Trump is a Nazi.

More practically, liberalism is the working philosophy of 'What can I get for nothing?', and...'How many of my responsibilities can I offload on someone else and legally get away with it?'

The only way for the liberal constituency to get what it wants is to take things from the people who've earned those things, using the police power (heavy hand) of government to do the deed for them. Will crafty liberals now twist religion around to where Jesus would be in favor of huge, nanny-state government, because such government is compassionate, even Christ-like? What nerve!

Liberal, nanny-state government becomes more and more corrupt over time.

Necessarily....intransigently....corrupt. The Founders were all very religious men, but they had enough sense to know what it is about human nature that will make for corrupt government. They did all they could to prevent against that with the Constitution they adopted.

The U.S. Constitution is not perfect, but close. It's meant to walk the line between jungle anarchy and despotism, to uphold individual liberty according to God's Natural Laws, to create fair and just law, to keep just order and a reasonable peace, in order to secure the blessings of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness for all who will embrace, uphold, and defend those high ideals.

The original purpose of this government, via the Constitution, was to do for its Citizens only those things which the Citizens cannot do for themselves.

Read that last sentence again, please.

We've strayed very far from the Founders' original intent. Liberalism is ants, naturally migrating to Uncle Sugar. Liberalism is the political philosophy of 'How can we keep it coming, and, what else can we get?' Liberalism is the mindset of those who think the world owes them something.

Jesus preached compassion, selflessness, and being your brother's keeper. He meant that to be taken on a personal basis, to be the instincts of each individual heart. That some liberals will now twist religion to explain and justify - their Liberalism is really going around the bend, even for liberals. Only, with Liberalism, the end always justifies the means.

Liberalism, as implemented by the nanny-state, steals the incentive of all by punishing achievement and rewarding sloth. It's that simple. There is nothing compassionate about Liberalism. Liberalism means to confirm the poor in their inertia. Is that what Christianity is about?

I believe God and Jesus were once firmly with the Founders....but now, neither God, nor Jesus - nor the Founders - would approve of what we've become. And, Liberalism is to blame, because Liberalism is a mental and emotional disorder. See the last 8 years of disgraceful governance by the out-gone ex-president. It really can't be made any clearer.

If Donald Trump is the man whose time has come....come to fix liberal, corrupt American government, then even liberals need to grow up and let him be.
